This book contains the earliest written records of the Wheeling area - from church records, land ownership maps and cemetery stones. It is the first time the church records have been published; the first book was translated from the German. Researchers, genealogists and historians will find many records of the early families living in Wheeling and the nearby area.

My special thanks to Adeline Kruse for translating the earliest church record book from the German, to Esther Perica for her special support and assistance, to my husband for all his help and patience, and the Community Presbyterian Church for allowing me to transcribe their books which contain the records of many of the early Wheeling families.

I would like to emphasize that many of the oldest cemetery stones are in very poor condition and some of the handwriting in the church records is very old and difficult to read; therefore, there may be some inaccuracies, although every effort was used to interpret them correctly.

In as much as the church records are published here in their entirety and the original books are very old; the originals cannot be photo-copied by the church for persons who might wish this service.

For the benefit of those reading the inscriptions on the cemetery stones, the most commonly used German terms are: geb., geboren means born; gest., gestorben, died; alt., alter, age; Jahr, year; vater, father; mutter, mother; tocher, daughter; sohn, son; frau von, wife of; and nee, refers to a woman's maiden name.

History of Wheeling and Wheeling Township

The Township of Wheeling lies in the northern part of Cook County, bounded by Lake County on the north, Townships of Northfield on the east, Maine and Elk Grove on the south, Palatine on the west; and contains thirty-six Sections.

Prior to settlement by white men, the area was occupied from 1769 to 1833 by Pottawatomie Indians; previous to that by the Miami Confederacy, who were in the region on LaSalle's first visit in 1681.

The derivation of the name of Wheeling is probably the "corruption of an Indian word...sometimes translated as 'the place of the head'" and probably referring to the Des Plaines River, which was the center of transportation for the Indians.

The first settler in what is now Wheeling Township, was a Mr. Sweet, who arrived in March 1833, selected a claim on Section 13, and built a cabin in which he lived until September. At that time, he sold his right of squatter's claim and his cabin to George Strong for sixty dollars and he became the first permanent white settler in the township.

After the treaty with the Pottawatomies was ratified on September 26, 1833, many settlers moved into Wheeling. The first of these was Joseph Filkins, who had located a claim in 1834, built his cabin and moved his family into it in 1835. This property is now the NE corner of the junction of Milwaukee and Dundee Roads. Almost immediately after the signing of the treaty, Timothy Titcomb also settled on Section 13, just north of George Strong. He sold out to Myron Dimmick within three or four years. In December, General Lewis Peet (and his wife Isabel), took up his claim in Wheeling Township, moving there the following spring. Also in 1834, William B. Clay and his two sons, John B. and E.H., settled on Section 2. S.M. Salisbury also settled on Section 2, James Mackey on Section 24, Christopher and Daniel Stanger on Section 13 and Christian Stryker on Section 12.

In 1835 came Peter Gebbhart, who afterward sold out to Henry Miller. The same year Isaac Martin, Matthew Chivel, Thomas Bradwell and other settlers arrived. About 18 log cabins were built during the year. The largest of these was a mansion built by Mr. William Hopps, which was located on Section 3. It was in this house of the well-to-do Mr. Hopps that Wheeling's first murder occurred. Mr. Hopps murdered his wife but was acquitted on grounds of insanity.

Ephraim and Charles Morrison settled on Section 11 in 1837; Conrad Miller came the same year. George Metz located on Section 12. His brothers-in-law, Ludwig Fischer and George Graff, came soon after.

The first enterprise came in 1837 when Joseph Filkins built the first commerical building, a tavern-hotel. In the same year Russell Wheeler and Charles Daniels opened a general store.

By 1833, two blacksmith shops were opened, one by Drestin Shepard, the other by Ascher G. Skinner. Lumber for these projects was supplied by a mill owned by a Mr. Kennicott. The mill was located on the Des Plaines River, about a mile south of what is now the town of Half Day. A flour mill was located on the west side of the river, directly across from the saw mill.

As settlers continued to pour into the area, other businesses quickly followed. James Parker opened the second hotel in 1840. By 1842, other enterprises included a store owned by John Rothschild; another store started by John M. Schaffer and a third by William Vogt. E.K. Beach opened a blacksmith shop. And, in 1845, a hardware store was introduced by Albert Fassbender.

Also in 1845, Wheeling's first school was built. Two years later, Jacob Filbert established a shoe store and a second was opened soon after by Jacob Hausam.

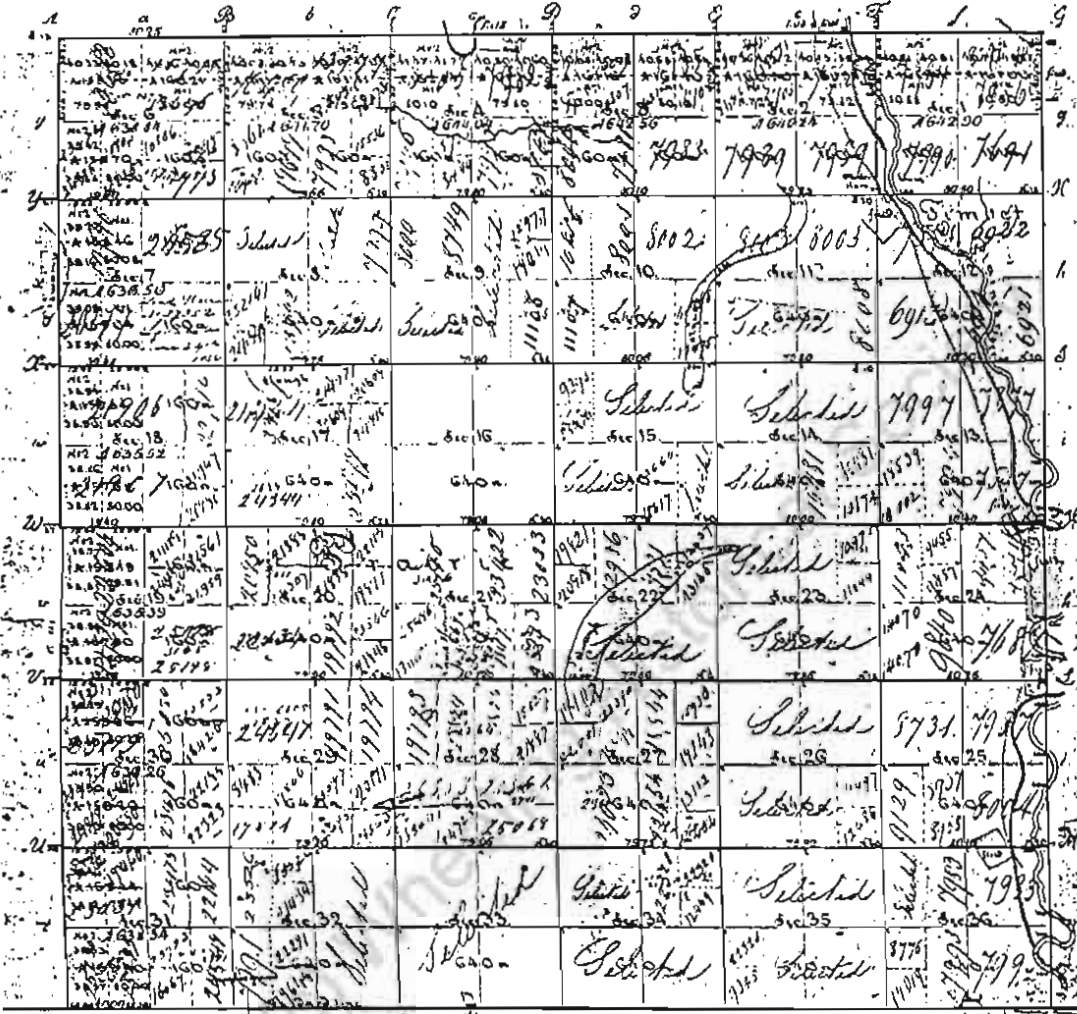

During the years from 1850 to 1890, other businesses and professional people came to the Wheeling area. A brewery was started in 1850 by Henry Periolat. Jacob Hunsinger opened a hotel in 1856. In 1864, the first church in Wheeling was organized. William Metz opened a blacksmith shop in 1865, and the same year Samuel Reese opened a wagonshop, which he sold to Louis Fischer three years later. Fred Stryker opened store in 1873; Martin Armbruster a hotel, and C. Welflin a harness shop in 1874. The latter sold out to R. Schneider in 1885. John Behm's hotel was opened in 1877, and John Schminke's store in 1878. In 1880, Henry Boehmer started a creamery which, later, Jacob P. Hausam superintended for eleven years. Sigwalt and Bollenbach opened a store in 1888.

The pioneer physician of Wheeling was Dr. Julius Purmann, who arrived in 1849, and practiced medicine until his death, which occurred in 1856. Dr. Francis R. Mergler located in the area in 1854 and engaged in the practice of medicine until 1875, when he moved to Palatine, where he died in 1880. Dr. M. Moffatt practiced from 1876 to 1890; at that time Dr. Henry Benz came to Wheeling.

Dr. John George Schneider was the area's first veterinarian, arriving in Wheeling in 1853.

The village of Wheeling was incorporated June 19, 1894, and included Wheeling Station on the Wisconsin Central Railway, one mile west of the old village. The depot was built in 1886. In 1900, the population of Wheeling was 331.

History of the Church

Community Presbyterian Church is the oldest church in the Wheeling community. It's history dates back to the early eighteen fifties when religious services were held in the school house and homes.

The first meeting for the purpose of organizing the German Evangelical United Reformed and Lutheran Church was held May 1, 1864. By the fall of that year, a decision was made to unite with the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. and on November 2, 1864 the German Zion Church became a part of the Presbytery of Chicago.

At this time, the following persons declared themselves members of the new congregation: G. Murbach, Conrad Zimmer, Jacob Zimmer, A. Fassbender, Werner Spengler, William Vogt, Christian Walter, Jacob Glos, Conrad Baerthel, A. Weber, A. Schminke, David Murbach, Nicholaus Boch and David Fritsch. Four days later the following names were added to the congregation: Melchior Kranz, Julius Baerthel, Elisabeth Werley, Ellen Fassbender, Christian Murbach, Salome Zimmer and Dorothea Baerthel.

They continued to meet in the school house for worship, but in the fall of 1865, the first church was built. Zion Presbyterian Church, long a landmark near the corner of Dundee Road and Milwaukee Avenue, became an influential center of community activity.

Session failed to submit it's minutes to Presbytery until the year 1875, when the following was entered upon that record: "Approved by Presbytery, April 13, 1875 with the recommendation that the records be kept in the English language." However, worship services continued to be held in German until 1918. For a time the church was a part of the Galena Presbytery but at the time the decision was made to hold services in English, the church was transferred back to the Chicago Presbytery.

In July of 1926, the church steeple was struck by lightning. And in June of 1948, the name was changed to Community Presbyterian Church of Wheeling. With the population growth and land development in the mid-1900's, it was decided to build a new church facility. The first services in the new building were held Christmas 1962.

The original building was purchased by the Wheeling Historical Society and is located at Chamber of Commerce Park, (N. Wolf Road) in Wheeling.

Marriages

Not all weddings were performed at the church - some were held in the manse, homes, and other churches.

History of the Cemetery

Early written records for the Wheeling Cemetery are unavailable. They may not have existed; possibly they were destroyed by the Chicago Fire or in some other manner.

The first monuments in the cemetery were of English settlers in the late 1830's. By the mid 1840's, German names begin to appear.

Land ownership maps show the land where the cemetery is located as belonging to J. Kessel in 1860 and 1870. The cemetery is included on the 1886 map. (See pages 5, 6, and 7)

On August 1, 1899, the Wheeling Cemetery Association filed with the state for corporation. A meeting was held September 6th for the purpose of selling 60 shares of stock in the corporation at $10 a share. The license was issued to Philip Harth, Robert Periolat and Louis Fischer on September 11, 1899. On September 18, the Ts. Cem. of Village of Wh. (Christian Welflin, John Schminke, and Philip Harth) granted the cemetery land to the Wheeling Cemetery Association and their successors. This transaction was finalized on December 5th. The object of the corporation was to purchase certain lands to be platted and laid out in burial lots. Additional land transactions were made between Wm Wille and the cemetery association at this time. The plat on the following page bears the date October 4, 1899 and was recorded June 13, 1900.

February 16, 1927 at 1:00 P.M., a meeting was held in Wheeling to dissolve the corporation. On March 4, the Wheeling Cemetery Association was dissolved by the state.

The Wheeling Cemetery Association deeded the land back to the Village of Wheeling on January 7, 1977 and the transaction was filed with the Recorder of Deeds on January 8th.
