WHEELING HISTORICAL SOCIETY

OCTOBER, 2008

Dear Members and Friends

October is here and the leaves are turning many colors. The air has that fresh smell of autumn which we all know will be followed by winter. There will still be some warm days on the way so don't get too excited looking for snow.

Christopher Edross and his helpers completed most of the work at the carriage house on that very rainy weekend in September. As our Curator notes, there are still a few items to be finished.

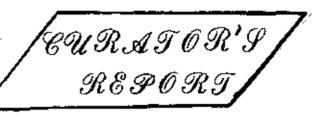

At the meeting in September discussion ensued as to The purchase of a Christmas ornament to be sold at Lollipop Lane. The design and color was approved and a sample will be presented at the next meeting, This year Lollipop Lane will be held from December 6th through December 14th, 2008. Elaine Simpson has been made chairperson and the society board and other members will be her helpers. At the regular meeting on the 22nd, the details will be discussed.

As you have been made aware of, at the October meeting we will welcome Len Afremow who will present his four month, 10,000 mile journey, of "Mexico and Central America That You have Never Seen". Please come and see the program and enjoy the refreshments. Please bring your friends. All are welcome. It starts at 7:30- p.m. and there is no fee.

We would like to thank Donna Valla's daughter for donating a picture she purchased on e-bay of a Wheeling School 1897-1898. Also thanks to Patrick Horcher for a Lithograph he made of a fighting fish which he has donated to the society.

Looking forward to seeing you at the coming Meeting on October 22nd at 7:30 p.m.

On Sept. 13th when he and several scouts and parents were out, they completed the other projects that day which consisted of two sets of l-horse harness which they treated, cleaned, three horse collars, and several farm implements and some blacksmith hand tools. Thanks to Chris and your scout troop.

Wheeling Post Office Grows From one in 1837 to 100 People in 1994.

By Jennifer Andrew and Jackie Sell Wheeling Herald February 2, 1994

The Wheeling Post Office had its beginning along with many other businesses in the Wheeling area a long, long time ago

The post office was established on May I, 1837 by Joseph Filkins. It was run out of Filkin's tavern on the northwest corner of Milwaukee Avenue and Dundee Road. This building was Wheeling's first tavern, hotel and stage coach stop. Mr. Filkins serves as postmaster.

In between 1837 and 1886, there was six different Postmasters: Charles Daniel, J.L. McDuffy, John Schaeffer, Charles Vogt, who served the longest term of 24 years, Fred Stryker, and Charles Hunsinger.

In 1896, Emil Sigwalt was appointed postmaster, and the post office weas moved to the general store owned by Sigwalt and Christ Bollenbach, on the west side of South Milwaukee Ave. Call boxes were used, since there were no locks at that time.

In 1918, Ed Welflin took over as postmaster until 1934.

August Grewe was postmaster from 1937 until 1954. The post office was located in the Fassbender store, near the southwest corner of Milwaukee Ave. and Dundee Road. The post office was located in the store from 1934 until 1941. Around this time, air mail was beginning to be flown out of Pal-Waukee Airport. In 1941, the post office was moved to the Forke building, a few doors south, until 1957.

In 1970, the post office was moved to its present location at 250 West Dundee Road. The current postmaster was Terry Caldwell who has been in this position since March of 1993. The post office currently operates with about 100 employees.

Bulletproof vest, fire escapes, windshield wipers, a laser printers were all invented by women.

The only food that doesn't spoil is Honey.

On Fathers' day there were more collect calls than any other day of the year.

The phrase "goodnight, sleep tight" came in Shakespeare's time when you pulled on the ropes, the mattress tightened, making the bed firmer to sleep on.

The phrase, "mind your P's and O's came from the time in English pubs, when ale was ordered by pints and quarts. In old England, when customers got unruly, the bartender would yell at them to "mind your pints and quarts, and settle down.".

NATURAL HIGHS!!!

Holding hands with someone you care about.

Running into an old friend and realizing that some things (good or bad) never change.

Watching the expression on someone's face as the open a much desired present from you.

Watching the sunrise.

Getting out of bed every morning and being grateful for another beautiful day.

Knowing that somebody misses you.

Getting a hug from someone you care about deeply.

Knowing you've done the right thing, no matter what other people think.

HOW OLD IS GRAMPA?

One evening a grandson as talking to his grandfather about current events, the grandson asked his grandfather what he thought about current events.

The Grandfather replied, "Well, let me think a minute, I was born before: there were gay-rights, computer-dating, dual careers, daycare centers, and group therapy.

Our lives were governed by the Ten Commandments, good judgment, and common sense.

We were taught to know the difference between right and wrong and to stand up and take responsibility for our actions.

Serving your country was a privilege, living in this country was a bigger privilege.

We thought fast food was what people ate during lent.

Having a meaningful relationship meant getting along with your cousins.

COMMENTS MADE IN THE YEAR 1955...52 YEARS AGO

"Thank goodness I won't live to see the day when the Government takes half our income in taxes. I sometimes wonder if we are electing the best people to congress."

"The drive-in restaurant is convenient in nice weather, but I seriously doubt they wil ever catch on.

There is no sense going to Lincoln or Omaha Anymore for a weekend, it costs nearly $15.00 a-Night to stay in a hotel.

No one can afford to be sick anymore, at $35.00 A day in the hospital, it's too rich for my blood.

GETTING OLD IS HILARIOUS! DRIVING:

Two elderly women were out driving in a large carboth could barely see over the dashboard. As they were cruising along, they came to an intersection, the stoplight was red, but they just went on through.

The woman in the passenger seat thought to herself "I must be losing it. I could have sworn we just went through a red light." After a few more minutes, they came to another intersection and the light was red again. Again, they went right through. The woman in the passenger seat was almost sure that the light had been red but was really concerned that she was losing it. She turned to the other woman and said, "Mildred, did you know that we ran through two red lights in a row? You could have killed us both!".

Mildred turned to her and said, "Oh, crap, am I driving?"

TO LEAVE OR NOT TO LEAVE

Grass clippings return nitrogen to the soil and provide a cooling effect on the turf. If the clippings must be moved, place some in the garden or a compost heap.

BRIGHTEN UP HOME

A gift of a motion sensing light adapter is a wonderful idea. Inside a home the adapter can save energy, time and money. Install in storage rooms, pantries or closets. The light automatically turns on when someone passes by and will shut off again without someone having to remember.

YARD TIPS

Fail and spring are the best time to transplant due to the more frequent rainfall and cooler temperatures.

REMINDER

Check garden hoses and outside faucets for leaks And cracks.

l'est's Corner

The Poem Dad Recited

Some folks in looks take so much pride
They don't think much on what's inside.
Well, as for me, I know my face
Can ne'er be made a thing of grace,
And so I rather think I'll see
How I can fix th' inside o' me
So folks'll say, "He looks like sin,
But ain't he beautiful within!"

Some evidence points to John Kendrick Bangs (1862-1922) as the poem's author, At one point, Bangs held the position of humor editor for "Harper's Magazine," "Harper's Bataar" and "Harper's Young People." Later, he was the editor of "Puck," a prominent humor magazine of the era.
