Wheeling day care operator, 26, killed on Dundee Road Saturday

A Wheeling woman was killed Saturday afternoon when the car she was riding in was broadsided by another vehicle.

Barbara Baum, 26, of 226 Cindy Lane, was riding in a car driven by her boyfriend, Keith McDonald, 24, of 226 Cindy Lane, when the accident occurred at 12:55 p.m., Wheeling police said.

McDonald told police they were on Dundee Road near the Cook County Forest Preserve and the Tri-State tollway when an animal ran in front of the car, police said. He said he swerved the car they were in to avoid striking the animal, but he lost control of the car and the passenger side of the car was struck by an oncoming vehicle.

Diane BuGay, 55, of 100 Lake Boulevard, Buffalo Grove, was driving the other vehicle. She is in Holy Family Hospital in Des Plaines with an ankle injury.

Baum was pronounced dead on arrival at 1:25 p.m. at Glenbrook Hospital in Glenview. She died from multiple injuries.

McDonald was treated for minor injuries and released. He was charged with improper lane usage.

Baum is the owner of TLC Daycare Home for Children in Wheeling. She is survived by her parents, two sisters and a brother plus two grandparents. Services were held yesterday at North Northfield United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Elizabeth Behm died at Milwaukee, Wis., July 8, 1901. December 25, 1800, she was 77 years old. She was born in Ebenfeldt, Germany. Was married to Adam Behm in 1848 at Buffalo, N. Y. where they resided seven years, when they moved to Fremont, Lake County, and for thirty-five years they were on a farm. They sold the farm and moved to Milwaukee. Mrs. Behm has been in poor health for years, having repeated attacks of grip. On Friday she had a stroke of paralysis and was unable to speak a word, more so her children who waited at her bedside for the final summons from above. She was a good woman, a loving mother, a kind hearted one to all who knew her, a true and devoted follower of her faith. For a great while she attended Mass each day, through the winter whether she would go to church. A Christian woman in word, deed and life. Her last words before she was paralyzed were to her children, exhorting them to be good and never forget their church duties. The funeral was held from St. Michael's Church, Milwaukee, and the burial took place at Calvary Cemetery. Her leaves to her husband, four sons and four daughters, besides many relatives and friends.

Happy are the innocent dead,
 Blessed who in Jesus die;
 They from all their toils are freed;
 In God's keeping safely lie.
 When the spirit hath departed
 Most peacefully best,
 Leads to their great reward,
 To give to their endless joy.

Jimmy Beitzel, 10; loved playing sports

By Krystyna Slivinski
SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE

Jimmy Beitzel, 10, of Wheeling died of head injuries Saturday in Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge. He had been in critical condition since Oct. 23, when he was hit by a truck on Wolf Road in the village.

Police continue to investigate the accident. No tickets have been issued.

Jimmy was a 5th grader at Whitman School in Wheeling.

"He really was a great kid, and he loved sports" recalled Ralph Cook, the school principal. "The whole school is just devastated."

Jimmy's main interests revolved around watching and playing sports. He played on teams at his school, as well as those organized by the Wheeling Park District. He played basketball and soccer and enjoyed wrestling, but his true love was hockey.

"He was just very big on it," said his mother, Sharon.

Recently, Jimmy decided to learn how to play the trumpet.

"He liked the way it looked," said his mother.

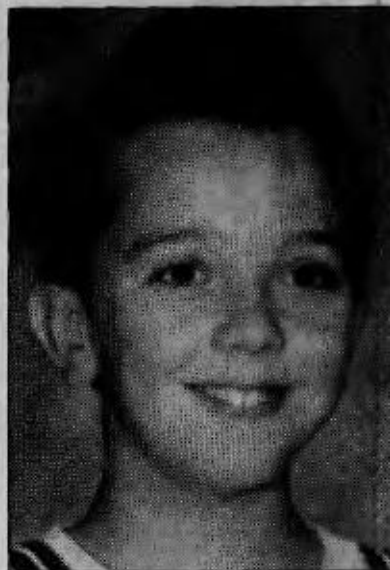

Jimmy also belonged to his school's Stamp Club and participated in Make a Difference Day, during which volunteers perform acts of kindness. Jimmy went door to door in his neighborhood collecting food for the needy.

"He wanted to make a difference," said his mother. "He was just a very loving and giving son, and he cared for a lot of people."

Other survivors include his father, James; a sister, Jennifer; and his grandparents, Erwin and Geraldine Beitzel and Robert and Jane Smith.

Visitation will be from 3 to 9 p.m. Tuesday in Kolssak Funeral Home, 189 S. Milwaukee Ave., Wheeling. Prayers will be said at 9 a.m. Wednesday in the funeral home, and a mass will follow at 9:30 a.m. in St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church, 181 W. Dundee Rd., Wheeling.

Neighbors and friends have set up a trust fund for the family. Donations can be sent to the Jimmy Beitzel Fund, First Northwest Bank, P.O. Box 1700, Arlington Heights, IL 60006.

Wild foxes in and around Wheeling are hereby warned that Ed Bellmore is out to organize more hunts this coming season. Last December, readers will recall, the two Eds—Bellmore and Gieseke—brought home two fine specimens of red fox.

Hunting and fishing are the hobbies of Mr. Bellmore, who has operated the Wheeling Barber shop for the last 30 years, 22 of which have been in its present location on Milwaukee ave.

Edward and his brother, Joseph Jr., learned their trade from their father, Joseph Sr., who was the first barber in Wheeling, having opened his shop in 1893, the year of Chicago's World Columbian Fair. Edward started barbering in 1920 and his brother five years later. Their dad retired in 1932 and Edward carried on the business.

Besides helping cut down the fox population, Edward Bellmore has displayed his civic activity on the Wheeling fire department, where he served 20 years before he retired. He has every reason to be proud of his children, Edward Jr., 9, and Carol, 18. The latter is now studying the theory of journalism at Monmouth college, after a year of practical experience on the Wheeling Herald.

Now that his brother has joined him in the barber shop, Edward has more time to indulge in his hobbies. In fact, he has just returned from duck hunting in Minnesota.

Medal of Honor winner gets Wheeling High School degree posthumously 30 years later

Thirty years after Michael Blanchfield posthumously received the Medal of Honor, he received his Wheeling High School diploma.

In a ceremony Friday that included speeches from U.S. Congressman Bob Dold, Blanchfield's family was presented with a plaque signifying his induction as a distinguished alumni as well as his honorary diploma. Wheeling Village President Judy Abruscato, students of Northwest Suburban High School District 214 and representatives of the 173rd Airborne Brigade also spoke.

Members of the Blanchfield family at the ceremony included his two sisters — Bobby Jo Dombek of St. Charles and Pat Darrow of the Atlanta area — his brother Bill Blanchfield, and nieces and grandnephews that Michael Blanchfield never met.

"It meant a lot to us, because he never graduated from Wheeling, that he got an honorary diploma," Pat Darrow said.

Blanchfield dropped out of school as a sophomore, but the family says that after joining the Army, he got his GED and he has already received the highest award given by the Army.

"He was already honored on a larger scale. This was just an extra added bonus," Bobby Jo Dombek said.

Mark Darrow, Pat's husband, accepted the awards on the family's behalf at the ceremony conducted in the school's theater.

"For our family, this is an enormous day of pride much the same as any family who is having a loved one graduate," Mark Darrow said while addressing the crowd. "While Michael's journey may follow a very unconventional path to a diploma, I believe we are all in violent agreement that he has met all the requirements of graduation."

Blanchfield received the Medal of Honor for his actions to save the lives of his fellow soldiers during the Vietnam War.

On July 3, 1969, Blanchfield was on patrol with a group of soldiers in Binh Dinh Province in the Republic of Vietnam. They were chasing a suspect when the man started throwing grenades at the soldiers.

The first grenade injured Blanchfield. When he saw the next one coming, he threw himself on the grenade, sacrificing himself to save the rest of his unit. He was 19.

"Who knows why he did what he did. There's no answer to the question why. There's no training for that selflessness to save his buddies. There's no answers," said Takie Mandakas, president of the Chicago chapter of the 173rd Airborne Association.

Congressman Dold took time in his speech to remind the students that Blanchfield was only a sophomore when he left the school.

"A special thank you to Michael and his family that are here," Rep. Dold said. "We, the United States of America, would not be the nation we are if not for the sacrifices that you all have given us."

Students across the building watched the ceremony on closed circuit television, while about 60 watched from within the theater. The school administration scheduled the ceremony so that it could be used as a teaching tool as well as an honorary ceremony for Blanchfield.

"We wanted to induct Michael into our hall of fame at a time when his actions in Vietnam could tie into our curriculum," said Dr. Ken Stiff, the associate principal who coordinated the event.

The event also included speeches from three students that educated the audience about Memorial Day, distinguished alumni and the Medal of Honor.

"They've seen movies about war, but seeing the movies is not what this is," said Bob Kupon, history teacher and a Vietnam War veteran. "You touch history."

Kupon took his U.S. history class to see the assembly in the theater.

"It's weird to think you walk through the same halls as someone who gave up their life," said Sarah Pozniak, a junior in Kupon's class.

This ceremony concluded the effort that Wheeling's former principal, Tom Shirley, a Korean War veteran, started soon after Blanchfield's death.

"It's a nice day. This day is his day," Shirley said.

Superdawg founder recalled as honorable, hardworking

By DOUG T. GRAHAM
dgraham@dailyherald.com

The family of Maurie Berman, who died Sunday at age 89 from heart problems, is remembering him as an honorable, creative, hardworking man whose legacy can be seen in every aspect of his Superdawg Drive-In restaurants in Chicago and Wheeling.

Scott Berman, Maurie's oldest son, said virtually every aspect of the restaurants were his father's design, including kitchen equipment, custom food boxes, and even the giant hot dog statues on the roof.

"It was his work, his passion and his hobby all rolled into one," Scott Berman said.

Laurie Drucker, Maurie's daughter, said her father loved the restaurant and could be found there most days over the last 67 years. But he was not alone; joining him nearly every day was his wife Flaurie Berman.

"They embarked on this life together," Laurie Drucker said. "She was a schoolteacher before, so he always said 'I took mom out of a school room and into a hot dog stand.'"

The two worked side by side for 67 years, at around 100 hours a week, 362 days a year, Laurie Drucker estimated. Maurie, a World War II veteran, and Flaurie opened the original Superdawg as a summer-only hot dog stand while both were attending Northwestern University in Evanston. After graduation, they liked the restaurant business enough that they operated it full-time.

Laurie Drucker said for a time her parents were the only employees, but when they finally were able to hire staff they were treated more like family. And of course, Maurie and Flaurie's actual family soon became employees as well. Now Scott Berman and Laurie Drucker, along with their spouses and other family members, run the restaurants. Berman said they intend to be loyal to their father's vision.

"We have absolutely no intention to change anything," Scott Berman said. "This is what we do, this is the way we do it and the way we do it works correctly, so why would we change?"

Don Drucker, Laurie's husband, said he admired his father-in-law for always being honorable with everyone he interacted with.

"He would always go overboard on the benefit of the other person, whether it be in rectifying a customer complaint or dealing with a supplier," Don Drucker said. "Whatever the case may have been, he was honorable."

Laurie Drucker said her father loved trying all kinds of food and would often take the family out to dinner all over the city, even sometimes up to Milwaukee.

"He was a foodie before anyone made the term," Laurie Drucker said. "In the late '60s, the Chicago Daily News had a top 25 pizza places in Chicago and I remember us going to every one."

Scott Berman said in recent years his father loved coming to the restaurant and greeting customers, only stopping a few months ago when he began having heart issues. Maurie's condition kept him in his Lincolnwood home, where Flaurie stayed by his side. Hospice care started Friday.

Scott Berman and Laurie Drucker said they didn't know if they would have a public memorial for their father but said both restaurants will be closed Tuesday to allow their employees to mourn with them. Maurie Berman is also survived by his son Myles and grandchildren Alyssa, Laura, Steffie, Max and Ross.

MAURIE BERMAN

Superdawg was founder's 'hobby'

RODRIGUEZ

Several veterans opened food stands to supplement their student incomes on the GI Bill after World War II, but Maurie Berman wanted something different.

"He wanted to open something more noteworthy," said his son, Scott Berman, 64. "A building, a tower, something with some identity."

So was born the friendly, family-run Northwest Side vintage drive-in Superdawg, with its order booth that looks like an airport control tower and its two 12-foot-tall papier-mache hot dogs, designed in 1948, that stand on its roof.

Mr. Berman died Sunday, May 17, of heart problems at 89, his son said.

Aside from his son, he leaves behind a wife of 68 years, two other children, five grandchildren and a 6-year-old great-grandchild, who had her first shift at the restaurant last week.

Scott Berman and Mr. Berman's daughter, Lisa Drucker, and their spouses and children have helped run the business, they said Sunday afternoon while at the store's original location, 6363 N. Milwaukee Ave.

A second location, in Wheeling, features the same rooftop hot dog caricatures — a leopard print-wearing strongman and his tutu-clad mate, modeled after Mr. Berman and his surviving wife, Flaurie. The location is managed by a granddaughter, Laura Ustick.

"He was able to build and run a highly successful, iconic institution and, at the same time, build and run and establish a close and loving family," Drucker, 53, said of her father.

The business now supports about 50 employees, but Flaurie Berman worked as the store's first carhop.

The couple graduated together from Von Steuben High School in the North Park neighborhood and married in August 1947, shortly after Mr. Berman returned from serving in the Army in World War II and a year before they opened Superdawg.

Flaurie Berman graduated from Northwestern with a teaching degree, and Maurie was studying accounting at Northwestern at the time.

They opened the drive-in two summers before they realized that running the store was more fun than being a teacher or an accountant and focused on it full time, his son and daughter said.

Mr. Berman designed the store's logo and slogans, including a human-looking Superdawg that lounges in "super fries" and a promise that, "We're doing our darndest to serve every customer every time in the manner that will make you want to return and bring your friends with you."

Most of the store's details that Mr. Berman specified in the 1940s remain the same today — from the original hot dog recipe and the french fry-cutting machine he designed himself to the bookkeeping and the food production line.

Mr. Berman had no outside hobbies, according to his children. Superdawg was his life.

"He enjoyed it like a person would enjoy a hobby," Scott Berman said.

If Mr. Berman found people who had never eaten there, he would inform them that they were expected to arrive soon for lunch.

"And they would come, and he would treat them and talk with them and laugh with them and have a wonderful time with them," Drucker said.

With his children and grandchildren, he enjoyed riding in the family car, scoping out new restaurants and old buildings and pointing out interesting signs. His family, employees and friends in the community would remember him as happy, sweet and warm, his children said.

"He loved being a nice guy," Scott Berman said.

2 Wheeling men killed in crash

Two Wheeling men were killed early Friday evening in a head-on crash on Route 83 just north of Westmoreland Drive near Vernon Hills.

A Lake County Sheriff's Department spokeswoman said Sol Bermea, 37, of 1575 Sand Pebble Drive, and Daniel Crepas, 29, of 124 N. Milwaukee Ave., were both pronounced dead upon arrival at Condell Memorial Hospital in Libertyville following the collision, which occurred around 5:40 p.m.

Police said Bermea was northbound on Route 83 and swerved into the southbound striking Crepas' vehicle. There were no passengers in either vehicle.

Alcohol may have played a part in the crash, the sheriff's department spokesman said. Friends who were with Bermea before the crash told sheriff's deputies that he was drinking and celebrating his birthday before the crash.

Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson said Monday it may be midweek or later before her department receives toxicology lab tests to determine whether Bermea was intoxicated at the time of the crash.

Else Bibow-Hansen

formerly of Wheeling

Else Bibow-Hansen, 90, of Forsyth, Ill., passed away Sunday, April 15, 2012, at St. Mary's Hospital.

A service to celebrate Else's life will be held at 1 p.m. Friday, April 20, at The Orchard Evangelical Free Church, 1330 N. Douglas Ave., Arlington Heights. Burial will be in Memory Gardens Cemetery in Arlington Heights.

Else was born Dec. 17, 1921, in Sultjelms, Norway, the daughter of Anna Nilsine Berc and Hartvig Bard Lund. She was the youngest of five children and was affectionately referred to as "Lillemor" by her family. Else earned her nursing degree in Trondheim, Norway, in 1946 and proceeded to work in Norway until 1950 when she immigrated to the United States. After a short stay on the east coast she moved to Chicago, where she continued her nursing career and earned her citizenship as well as her status of RN through the state of Illinois in April of 1953.

Else married Arthur Bibow-Hansen, also of Norwegian descent, on Dec. 10, 1955 in Chicago. They raised their three children, Eric, Trudy and Kristine, in Wheeling, and remained married for 42 years until Arthur's death in 1997. Else was beloved by many patients that she cared for up until 1995 when she suffered a traumatic brain injury. Determined, she learned how to walk, write, and speak again. Else relocated to Forsyth in the fall of 1997, where she resided in her own garden home at Hickory Point Christian Village and then moved into the assisted living facility in 2008.

Else was a woman of strong faith and dearly loved her family as well as her extended family in Norway. She created many beautiful pieces in needlepoint and enjoyed classical music. Her sweet spirit will be missed by all who knew her.

Else is survived by her children, Eric Hansen of Decatur, Trudy (Robert) Davis of Half Way, Mo. and Kristine Hansen of Decatur. She is also survived by seven grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, two sisters and three brothers.

In lieu of flowers, family suggests memorials to Heritage Behavioral Health Center, 151 N. Main St., Decatur, IL 62525; Cepudo Honduras at www.cepudohn.org; or Slavic Reformation Society, P.O. He was the son of William Blaisdell and Elizabeth Boris; and grandson of Jack and Marie Blaisdell, and Jack and the late Kay Arnold.

Visitation will be from 3 to 7 p.m. today, at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

BENJAMIN, IRVING

Feb 23 2014

In the presence of his loving daughter, Sherrie, friend Syd, and kind and devoted caregivers, Linda and Connie, Irving Benjamin passed peacefully to be with his beloved wife, Rita, on the morning of February 20, 2014. Born on June 8, 1929 in Chicago, to Frank and Jenny, he grew up in Chicago until the passing of his father when he was 13. His mother then married Sydney Rosenthal (Papa Sydney) and the family moved to Memphis, TN where Irving finished High School. He and his mother, enjoyed a closeness that would rival any, until her death in 1980.

He returned to Chicago where he met and later married Rita on November 19, 1950, a marriage, "childhood romance", that would last 59 years, until her death in December of 2009. Those who knew Irv during the last few years of Rita's life, would know him as a devoted husband, who spent his days doting over and comforting Rita. Anyone spending time at Brentwood North Nursing Center during this time would also tell you of his undeniable gift of schmooze, charm and kibitz, and at times, his sense of humor, a Benjamin trait through and through.

With three small children and his wife at home, Irv's drive to make a good life for his family took over. After 10 years of night classes, in 1968, he graduated from Northwestern University with a degree in mathematics. So busy now, he also made time to be a scout leader and coach little league. Irv retired in 1992 as the Asst. Bureau Chief of the Cook County Highway department, having served 42 years. He was a proud member of the Illinois Society of Professional Engineers, until the day he died, and would tell anyone who would listen (and many who wouldn't) about the exploits of his department and the influence they had on building the roads to the suburbs of Chicago. He briefly came out of retirement for his last big project as a part of the crew that moved the intersection of Hintz and Wolf Roads by what was then Palwaukee Airport, now Chicago Executive Airport, in order to accommodate a longer runway for larger planes. Driving in a car in Cook County with Irv was like having your own county historian, as his knowledge of the road system was uncanny.

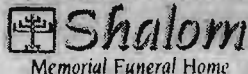

Irv and Rita raised their family in Chicago in the East Rogers Park Neighborhood until Sherrie, their youngest entered the eighth grade, when they moved to Wheeling, IL and kept a home until 2004. They subsequently moved to Buffalo Grove.

Irving is survived by his sons Fred (Sharon) Benjamin, of Owasso, OK and Mark (Gayle) Benjamin of San Diego, CA, and daughters Pam (Paul) Monheimer of Portland, OR and Sherrie (Steve) Marchi of Palatine, IL. He is also survived by his grandchildren Brandon Benjamin, Erin (Bobby) Hunter, Nicole (Darren) Freedman, Jonathan "Hockey Wrenches" Benjamin, Noa Monheimer and Nolan and James Marchi, as well as nieces, nephews and cousins.

Irv was a lifelong Chicago sports fan, especially devoted to the Chicago Cubs...sigh. He often spent times recounting his time in the Sun for an open tryout with his beloved team on the hallowed grounds of Wrigley Field when he was a teenager, but alas, Jenny "Didn't want no Baseball bum!" "If they just would have offered me a contract," Irv would say, "I would have brought them the pennant!" No doubt in my mind, Irv, I can see you out there now, patrolling center field with your cap pulled down low over your eyes and your pants pulled up high under your knees. At the bat, choking up and slapping the ball into the gap for a hustle double, going into second base with your cleats high in a cloud of dust. SAFE! In the words of one of the greatest of all baseball songs... "Put me in coach, I'm ready to play!"

Arrangements: Memorial service February 25, 12:15 PM at the Chapel at Shalom Memorial Park, 1700 W Rand Rd, Arlington Heights, IL 60004. Interment to follow. Memorials to "Baseball Oyate", c/o Sherrie Marchi, 268 N. Clyde, Palatine, IL, 60067, Baseballoyate.org.

SAFELY HOME

I am Home in Heaven, dear ones,
Oh! so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this Everlasting Light.

All the pain and grief are over,
Every restless yearning past;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely Home in Heaven at last.

Dear one, do not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows.
Pray to trust Our Father's will.

When your work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home:
Oh! the rapture of that meeting!
Oh! The joy to see you come.

Wheeling High School mourns 'the van lady'

BY EILEEN O. DADAY
Daily Herald correspondent

For more than 35 years, students at Wheeling High School knew Georgia Lee Blyth as the security guard who monitored the outside part of the building, from the parking lots to the surrounding neighborhoods.

"They called her 'the van lady,'" says Debra Swierczek, dean of students. "She was an icon here."

Blyth was found on Tuesday slumped over the steering wheel of her school van during one of her regular rounds. She passed away that day, at the age of 69.

"Generations of kids grew up knowing her," Swierczek adds. "She knew every car in the parking lot and followed up to make sure they all had the proper stickers. She also went out into the neighborhood, making sure our kids were being good neighbors."

Blyth began working at Wheeling High School in 1975, while her two sons were in elementary school. As a single mother, she needed to find work, and she turned to the local high school, where her sisters still attended.

"The students liked her," Swierczek added. "They knew she was doing a good job and they respected her for it."

Blyth also worked security during home football games, and over the years she became one of the school's biggest fans, family members say.

Life story Georgia Lee Blyth ~ 1941-2011

"She really loved the kids," says her son Eric. "She just liked helping people."

In 1996, Blyth took on a second job to help support her family. She worked evenings as a part time security guard at the Wheeling Township offices in Arlington Heights.

"She was always there to secure the building at the end of the night," said Jo Stellato, finance and administration director. "She was wonderful and so dependable. Everyone who received services at the building got along with her."

Her son said that for years, she would work all day at the high school, before coming home for a short break and heading to her second job at Wheeling Township.

"She worked long days," Eric Blyth said. "She really worked hard."

Wheeling Township officials knew immediately on Wednesday that something was wrong, when they arrived in the morning to find office doors open in their building and blinds still up.

"Georgia always did all that," Stellato added.

Blyth was preceded in death by her son Christopher. She is survived by two grandsons.

Visitation will be held at 11 a.m. before a 4 p.m. funeral service, both on Saturday at Kolssak Funeral Home, 189 S. Milwaukee Road in Wheeling.

KENNETH M. BONDER 1943-2009

Municipal finance expert in northwest suburbs

By Graydon Megan

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE

Mar 29, 2009

Vision and financial expertise marked Kenneth M. Bonder's long career managing northwest suburban towns and their finances.

Palatine Mayor Rita Mullins said her village had a deficit of $4 million in the early 2000s. "He helped us get back on our feet by belt-tightening," she said of Mr. Bonder's work as the town's chief financial officer from 1999-2003.

"As a result, today ... we have a balanced budget, we have money in reserves and we have an AA+ bond rating," she said. "He laid the groundwork for all that."

Mr. Bonder, 65, who worked in municipal government in Palatine, Arlington Heights and Prospect Heights, died of complications from colon cancer Wednesday, March 25, in Northwest Community Hospital in Arlington Heights. He and his wife, Dorice, lived in the village for 40 years.

Mr. Bonder began in 1968 as a budget analyst for Dayton, Ohio, after getting a bachelor's and a master's degree in public administration from the University of Dayton.

"He loved town government and wanted to make the communities better for everyone," said his daughter Kendryn McDonough.

In 1969, the Oak Park native returned to Illinois and a job with Arlington Heights. In the early 1980s, he began to see how a new

"We were pioneers in the TIF business, and Ken was right there."

— Jack Siegel, Arlington Heights village attorney municipal financing tool, the tax increment financing district, could spur development.

"He saw the future, he saw what we could be," said long-time Village Atty. Jack Siegel, who worked with Mr. Bonder when he was finance director and village manager. "We were pioneers in the TIF business, and Ken was right there."

"He was intuitive, and had the initiative to see something, learn about it and bring it to elected officials to use," said Arlington Heights Mayor Arlene Mulder.

Mr. Bonder's work led to the establishment in 1983 of the village's first TIF district to drive downtown redevelopment.

Mulder said Mr. Bonder influenced much of the village's development in the planning stages. "He gave a great gift to all the village residents, present and future."

Mr. Bonder left Arlington Heights in late 1992 and the next year began work as city administrator of Prospect Heights, a job he held until 1999, when he officially retired. He soon took on the finance post in Palatine on a contract basis.

Kenneth M. Bonder was an early backer of tax-increment financing districts.

✘ He came out of retirement again in 2005 to help a friend in Wheeling, J. Mark Rooney, the village manager who was the assistant at the time, was called to active duty in Iraq, said F. Wallace Douthwaite, then Wheeling's village manager.

"Ken agreed to come help me out for a year and a half," Douthwaite said.

"He was a real people person. Always had a smile on his face—always knew what he was talking about, and was always helpful to his peers," Douthwaite added.

Mr. Bonder married Dorice Maryanowski in 1968. They met as college interns in Chicago.

Survivors also include a son, Kraig, and five grandchildren.

Visitation will be held from 3 to 8 p.m. Sunday in Glueckert Funeral Home, 1520 N. Arlington Heights Rd., Arlington Heights. Mass will be said at 10 a.m. Monday in St. Raymond Catholic Church, 301 S. I-Oka Ave., Mt. Prospect.

Lend-Lease convoys struggled toward Russia

The weather was 50 degrees below zero accompanied by blizzards and rough seas. The waves that crashed over the bow of the ship quickly froze and left ice on the deck. And they had to watch for icebergs as they traveled from the winter into the late spring, because it was still dark most of the time.

The trip to Murmansk with Lend-Lease supplies for the Russians was one of the most difficult and dangerous of World War II.

The route through the Barents Sea not only offered challenges due to the darkness and the weather, but also was infested with German U-boats near the occupied Norwegian coast.

Yet it was still safer to travel in the dead of winter under cover of darkness so that detection by the German submarines was more difficult, as ships were less visible under cloudy skies and in gray water. It was some comfort that merchant ships had been outfitted with guns for protection and manned by naval personnel like Bernie Borst, an armed guard with the Navy.

An understated Bernie called conditions "very rough and very cold." Indeed.

Better weather, at least, was in store for the future. Bernie manned oil freighters that were loaded at refineries in Aruba in the Caribbean, and then traveled through the Panama Canal to the Pacific islands of Saipan and Guam.

The difference, however, was that the northern routes were conducted with the safety of other ships in convoys while those in the Pacific traveled alone.

The ships used were the hastily constructed Liberty ships, where riveting was replaced by welding. It was faster and cheaper to weld the ships together, but weather extremes and more brittle steel contributed to structural problems. When the ships hit heavy seas, Bernie noted, water would seep through the ship's seams, and "it was quite an experience."

When the war ended, Bernie married Dolores and they had two children, and there are now two grandchildren. He was a machinist at Bell & Howell for 40 years. Bernie made the trip to Washington to see the World War II Memorial with Honor Flight Chicago in July, accompanied his brothers Ed and Joe, also WWII vets.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, and sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

WHEELING - Clement Brandt, age 90, went to be with the Lord, Wednesday August 5th, 2015. He passed away at Claremont Residence in Buffalo Grove, Illinois. Clement, also known as "Bob", was married to Ruth in 1958. They lived in Wheeling since their marriage. He loved taking care of the outside of his house and he created a beautiful backyard for many birds who visited the sanctuary over the years. He is survived by his wife, two daughters and six grandchildren. What Jesus says as he prayed toward, heaven is found in John 17:2, 3. 2 For you granted him authority over all people that he might give eternal life to all those you have given him. 3 Now this is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ.

OBITUARIES

Esther Brown 5-24-07

Esther Brown, 100, of Wheeling (formerly of Morton Grove; Seattle, Port Orchard and Bremerton, Wash.; Caro, Mich.; and Chicago), died of natural causes May 12. She was born in 1907 to Finnish immigrants Hilda and Albin Putkonen, and was the oldest of five children, Don, Leo, George, and Arthur, all deceased.

Mrs. Brown was an accomplished textile artist, painter and great dancer. At age 78, she developed an interest in painting and attended the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. She witnessed a century of change from horse and buggy to the space shuttle, hand crank phones to cell phones, the advancement of women in America, a shift from rights for only a select few to rights for all.

First married to Fred Bruder and in later years to Harry Brown Sr., she is survived by five children, Howard Bruder of Wheeling, Rosalie Atkinson of Manchester, Wash., Marlene Latimer of Akron, Mich., Fred Bruder of St. Charles, and Harry Brown of Park Forest; 17 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren, and seven great-great-grandchildren.

The family appreciates donations sent to Mrs. Brown's care facility, the Greek American Nursing Home, 220 N. 1st St., Wheeling IL 60090, or any organization of choice that promotes handmade and original visual art, or that directly affects positive change in the world today.

1860-07-21 Coroner James has returned from Wheeling, in this country, from an inquest on the body of the unfortunate man John Brown, killed by the wretch McEnroe, now in jail here. The examination showed the facts to be mainly as before stated by us.

About eight o'clock on the morning of the 18th inst., the deceased, a laboring man who has worked for farmers in Wheeling and Palatine for the past two or three years, was walking toward the depot at Duncan Station. When within a few rods of it, he was accosted by this Stephen McEnroe, alias Stephen Alphin, a laboring man also, who a few days previous had been discharged by Mr. Kennicott, a milk dealer at Wheeling, who came running up to him and seizing him roughly by the collar, accused him of having a dollar of his money. Brown denied it and said that he had nothing of the kind. Without further conversation, McEnroe, with an open pocket-knife which he had in his hand, stabbed Brown four times with the small blade, in one of the stabs, the knife penetrating into the right ventricle of the heart.

Brown fell to the earth and macerate fled, but was pursued by bystanders who had witnessed the death. The murderer finding himself closely pressed ran into a house occupied by Dr. Hawks and secreted himself under a bed. He was, however, soon dragged out from his hiding place and brought to this city in the first train and lodged in jail, by Deputy sheriff Scaffold. Brown died at eight o'clock P.M. of the same day.

The most intense excitement prevailed in that vicinity, which, indeed, was not far from finding an outbreak, so much were the citizens incensed by the deliberateness of the deed. The real motive of the murderer is unknown. Brown is represented by all that town to have been a quiet man, having little if any acquaintance with the murderer.

It is the belief that McEnroe mistook Brown for another person who owed him a dollar, but others think the real cause lies in his bloodthirsty disposition, which is marked as before this to have won him notoriety, as stated in our former issues. The jury returned a verdict that,

"The deceased, John Brown, came to his death by wounds inflicted with a knife or other sharp instrument, in the hands of Stephen McEnroe alias Stephen Alphin, at Duncan Station, in the town of Wheeling, County of Cook and State of Illinois, about eight o'clock a.m., on the 18th of July, 1860."

The deceased, John Brown, was about thirty-five years of age, unmarried, and has a father, Samuel Brown, living at 350 Eutaw street, Baltimore. A dispatch was sent to him yesterday informing him of the death of his son and an answer received to place the body in a vault to await his coming.

The wretched author of this tragedy is in jail here, and either assumedly or with a return of real malady, is presenting all the more dangerous features of insanity. He raves and shouts, and asserts that he is haunted by demons whose color he describes as blue, green and red.

He is a powerful fellow, and this is his third assault with deadly designs. Two others did not prove fatal and he slipped out of punishment on a ground of insanity. Had sterner duty been done him on these former occasions, it would have saved the life of poor Brown.

1860-11-07 In this city Nov. 6th. at 25 minutes past 8 o'clock A.M., of Scarlet Fever CHARLES SEYMOUR, oldest son of Charles H. and Deadama Barnes, aged 3 years 7 months and 3 days.

This display was constructed by Mr. Ray Buchino, a Civil War buff, <sup>Korean</sup> veteran and member of AMVETS Post 66 of Wheeling, where he is Chaplain.

Mr. Buchino spent many years touring the battlefields and museums pertaining to the Civil War period. In all fairness, Ray wanted to show both sides of the war, North and South, by making the display you see before you, which took 3½ years to construct. Look closely and you can see all the hand painted buttons, buckles, faces, buckets, etc. and you can also see what a labor of love it was to create.

Some Civil War Facts and Statistics:

Term - 1861-1865

Engagements - 2200

More than 3,000,000 men involved

One out of every five participants were killed or died of wounds.

In comparison, WWI took 126,000 American lives, WWII took 407,000

The Civil War was "our war" which pitted American against American, brother against brother, father against son.

A re-enactment of the Civil War will be part of the 1994 Wheeling Centennial, and will take place on August 6th. & 7th., 1994.

Hope to see you there.

Wheeling volunteer Robert Buerger Sr.

By Walter Gottesman
SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE

Robert H. Buerger Sr., 76, who was active in many Wheeling programs and events, died Tuesday in Northwest Community Healthcare in Arlington Heights.

Mr. Buerger, a World War II Navy veteran, was a retired carpentry foreman for the Chicago Transit Authority, with 41 years of service.

The Chicago native was a 42-year resident of Wheeling. Mr. Buerger served as director of civil defense in Wheeling from 1965 to 1984. He was a vice president of the Wheeling Historical Society and its president from 1978 to 1990. Also in Wheeling, Mr. Buerger was a park ranger emeritus with the Park District, a Boy Scout commissioner in the late 1960s and a member of the Centennial Committee.

For the past 10 years, he and his wife, Eleanor, were co-chairmen of the Historical Society's annual Lot-lipop Lane Santa Claus activity at Chamber Park.

Mr. Buerger served in the U.S. Navy as an armed guard on 10 ships.

He retired from the CTA in 1984. He was a security guard for the former Wheeling Bank, while working for the CTA. After retiring from the transit agency, he worked for the past 14 years as a security guard for Cole Taylor Bank in Wheeling.

He was a co-founder and commander in the 1970s of the former Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 7178 in Wheeling.

Mr. Buerger was a former Republican precinct captain in Chicago's 41st Ward and a former member of the Chicago Police Reserves.

"He was in the hospital since last October, and all the nurses just adored him," said his wife. "He was always talking. He had a lot to say and everyone wanted to listen."

"We were fortunate to have him," said Karop Bavougian, executive director of the Wheeling Park District.

He said Mr. Buerger used to help direct traffic for the village's 4th of July celebrations and was honored by the district with the appointment of park ranger emeritus in the 1980s.

"He was the best Santa we had," said Lonnie Schnaitmann, a fellow co-chairman of Lollipop Lane. "He knew everyone. He will be missed."

Bulmashes celebrate 50

Essie and Harold Bulmash of Wheeling celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wedding April 4 with about 25 friends and relatives at Carlucci restaurant in Lincolnshire.

Among the guests were Harold's old friend Seymour Roth, Essie's sister Sherry Becker, and Harold's brother Paul, all of whom attended the 1954 wedding.

The couple, both from Chicago's West Side, met on a blind date on April 4, 1953. It was a date that Harold never confirmed, Essie remembered.

"I really didn't want to go out with him," Essie remembered. "I had thought he was standing me up. Even my dog snapped at him."

But it turned out that he hadn't called because he had been on a job in Indiana, and at the end of the evening, "he gently kissed me on the forehead and I fell in love," Essie said.

The couple married a year later to the day.

The Bulmashes are the parents of Steve and Bob (Sandra) and the grandparents of Todd, Kelly, Jill, Danny and Sammy.

"It sounds like schmaltz, but what a wonderful life we've had together," Essie said. "We wish for everyone what we have had."

44-year-old Wheeling woman dies after jumping out of moving van

A 44-year-old Wheeling woman was killed early this morning when she jumped out of a moving van after having an argument with the driver.

Judith D. Byrne, 44, was pronounced dead at Holy Family Hospital in Des Plaines following the 1:30 a.m. accident on McHenry Road.

Police said Byrne and the driver, Robert A. Bell, 37, had a "verbal disagreement" before she stepped out of the van as it was traveling north on McHenry Road.

An investigation concluded that Byrne suffered fatal injuries when her head hit the pavement.

Police said Bell has not been charged with any wrongdoing and that there are no indications of foul play.

Sherry Lynn Bytnar, 13, died Saturday at Holy Family Hospital in Des Plaines from complications resulting from an auto accident that occurred May 27.
