Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love, for it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen.

MARY ELIZABETH DAY

Mary Elizabeth Day of Crystal Lake Mary Elizabeth Day, 81, died Saturday, Jan. 19, 2013, at the Hospice of Northeastern Illinois Pepper Family Home in Barrington. She was born on July 4, 1931, in Rome, Ga., to Thomas and Carrie (Robertson) McElreath. On Aug. 8, 1953, she married Robert J. Day at St. Thecla Church in Chicago. As a young child, Mary Elizabeth always thought that the 4th of July parades were for her birthday since it fell on the 4th of July. She was also known as "Georgia" after moving from Georgia to Detroit at the age of 12. After graduating high school, Mary landed a job as a secretary at the Ford Motor Company in Detroit. In 1950, during a USO dance, she met her husband, Bob. They especially loved to dance the jitterbug and listen to Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey music. Bob served in Korea and in 1953 they married and stayed in the Chicago area. Settling in Wheeling, they started a family. Mary was very happy to be a homemaker and raise her two daughters. In 1967, they moved to Arlington Heights where they spent 32 wonderful years watching their daughters grow up and marry. For 30 of those years, she was actively involved in Arlington Heights politics. Two of her favorite events of the year were The Opening Day and The Arlington Million, where she was wined and dined up in The Paddock Club. In 2001 she and her husband moved to Crystal Lake to be closer to their daughter and her family. We will all miss her dearly. Survivors include her husband, Robert J. Day; children, Patricia (Robert) Comer of Albuquerque, N.M. and Allison (Arthur) Petty of Crystal Lake; four grandchildren, Rana (Leo) Doyal, Justin Comer, Kyle Petty and Michael Petty; and one great-grandchild, Kade Comer. She was preceded in death by her parents. A celebration of life will be scheduled during the summer, date to be announced. For those wishing to send an expression of condolence, her family suggests a donation to Hospice & Palliative Care of Northeastern Illinois, 405 Lake Zurich Road, Barrington, IL 60010. Arrangements by Colonial Funeral Home, McHenry. For information, call 815-385-0063 or visit www.colonialmchenry.com.

To: ARCHLLR@aol.com (Linda Reading)

Dear Linda:

I was archiving old emails and read again your email to me of 1/31/04, over a year ago, regarding the Deans, Lansings etc. of Wheeling.

I read about your illness in the Historical Society newsletter and hope that you are all recovered. It appears to be so from mention of your HS activities in recent newsletters.

Anyway, what I wanted to tell you, for your files, is that I learned that John Dean of Wheeling did not die there but rather moved to St. Paul sometime between 1860 and 1870. He and his wife appear in the St. Paul census the latter year.

Seems he had a daughter named Elizabeth who married a fellow named Amasa Thompson from McHenry County, an artist and photographer, and they moved to St. Paul. Perhaps they all went together.

Elizabeth later worked in the St. Paul City and County Hospital and she and her father John Dean were enumerated at the hospital in the 1880 federal census. He was almost 90 years old by then and I assume he died not long after.

So, maybe they never used the burial plot in his name in Wheeling, although more likely there are some children buried there.

Please put this in your Dean file, if you have one, in case anyone ever comes researching the Deans. Maybe someone will be interested in Dean's addition there in Wheeling, which I would like to know more about if such occasion should arise.

Also put it in James Parker's file. I'm pretty sure that James Parker's wife Mary was John Dean's daughter.

Hope all is well at the Wheeling HS. Keep up the good work. Regards, Jim Landberg

CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY, MASTER BUILDER 1855-1865
COMMISSIONER OF HIGHWAYS-1860

MUNSON D. DEAN was born at Volney, Oswego Co., N. Y., in April, 1826, and when five years of age moved to Oswego, in the same county, where his father was engaged in the lumber business. He was educated in Oswego, where he lived until he was sixteen. At that age he was apprenticed to learn the carpenter's trade, and remained until he was twenty-one, when he left his employer, and gave his attention to contracting and building. He removed to Brooklyn, N. Y., and remained there from 1850 to 1855, when he came to Chicago. He at first commenced contracting and building, which he continued for nearly five years, when he entered the employment of the Chicago & North-Western Railway, as master builder, remaining in this capacity until 1865. He again located in Chicago, and commenced contracting and building, which he steadily followed until 1871, when he opened a real-estate office, and is still engaged in that branch of the business. His mother, Mrs. Sallie Dean, is still living, and on February 18, 1884, passed her eighty-ninth birthday, which was celebrated by a large concourse of her descendants and friends, which constituted quite an event in Berdette, N. Y., eliciting interesting and flattering notices from the local press. She had living, at that time, seven children, twenty-seven grand-children, and sixteen great-grand-children. Mr. Dean was married at Fulton, N. Y., in 1848, to Miss Amelia De Long, who died in 1866, leaving three children, who are still living: Charles C., William E., and Harriet A. In 1868, he married Miss Elizabeth D. Lockwood, of Ashtabula, Ohio; they have five children living: Elizabeth M., Samuel L., Cordelia A., George L. and Edward Garfield.

THOMAS J. DEBARTOLO 1916-2012

Dance teacher waltzed into his career

BY JOAN GIANGRASSE KATES

Special to the Tribune

Even into his 90s, Thomas J. DeBartolo danced a mean tango.

"Tom looked so dapper dancing the tango," said Aggie, his wife of 69 years. "When it came to dips — well, no one dipped better."

Mr. DeBartolo, 96, died of natural causes Tuesday, March 6, at his home in Niles.

Formerly of Park Ridge, Mr. DeBartolo and his wife taught ballroom dancing for many years in the northwest suburbs.

"He literally taught thousands how to dance, but his passion was performing," said his son Terry. "He danced with all the top orchestras in the city."

Mr. DeBartolo and his wife performed for decades at Daley Plaza's Dancing Under the Picasso, and he was featured in 1994 on WTTW-Ch. 11's "Remembering Chicago."

Born and raised on the Northwest Side, Mr. DeBartolo attended Schurz High School and DePaul Academy. He met his future wife at the Aragon Ballroom in 1941, when the two were paired to dance a waltz. Two years later the couple married.

"I remember thinking while dancing that first dance, 'I just adore this man,'" his wife said.

DeBartolo

In 1950, Mr. DeBartolo and his wife won the amateur division at the Sun-Times Harvest Moon Festival

Their professional careers were launched in front of an audience of 22,000 in that same competition two years later at Chicago Stadium; they won first place in the professional division.

That victory secured the couple a long-running engagement at the Chicago Theatre and led to gigs at venues like the Oriental Theatre, Club Hollywood, Melody Mill, Willowbrook Ballroom and The Embassy. They also danced at hotels and on cruise ships. "Our job was to get people out of their seats and onto the dance floor," his wife said. "But it didn't feel like work with Tom at my side."

For more than four decades, Mr. DeBartolo and his wife also gave lessons to dancers in the northwest suburbs, most recently at the Chevy Chase Country Club in Wheeling.

When not dancing, he worked as a time-study engineer at various firms.

"Tom's level of talent, achievement and total perfectionism never kept him from being caring and patient as a teacher," said his friend and former student Chris Koutsoukos.

Mr. DeBartolo is also survived by two other sons, Bill and Tom Jr.; a daughter, Joan; seven grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

A celebration of his life will be 2-4 p.m. April 15 at Forest View Educational Center, 2121 S. Goebbert Road (Door No. 1), Arlington Heights.

Middle school remembers boy who died of leukemia

Daily Herald 3/24/10
BY DWAYNE T. WONG
Daily Herald Staff Writer

At London Middle School they are remembering Ryan Delaney as upbeat with a good sense of humor and positive attitude.

Students at the Wheeling school this week are mourning 12-year-old

Ryan's death after he lost his three-month battle with leukemia.

The Buffalo Grove boy died Monday at Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge.

Students hung posters throughout London to honor their classmate.

"Ryan we will miss you" read one poster. School officials also collected more than 150 farewell notes classmates crammed into his locker.

Wendy Billington, London's principal, said Ryan learned in December he had leukemia.

After Ryan, a seventh-grade student, underwent treatment he returned to London early this year and found classmates rallying around him.

Ryan Delaney

"He was upbeat the whole time. He was a neat kid," Billington said. "He wanted to be here. He didn't want to be at home; he wanted to be a regular kid."

Ryan belonged to two bands at London, Billington said.

In the millennium version of flying a flag at half-staff, London linked its Web site at www.d21.k12.il.us/ to Ryan's Web page.

Ryan's page includes a photo of him, minus hair lost from medical treatments, posing with his hairless infant cousins.

The school brought in counselors to help grieving students.

Ryan's wake was held Thursday at Glueckert Funeral Home Ltd. in Arlington Heights.

He is survived by his parents, Joseph and Julia Ann, and sister, Colleen.

The family requests memorials be made to the Leukemia Society of America, Illinois Chapter, care of Joseph Sullivan, P.O. Box 75283, Baltimore, MD, 21275.

Funeral services are at 10:30 a.m. today at the funeral home followed by Mass at 11 a.m. at St. Mary Church in Buffalo Grove. Ryan will be buried at St. Michael the Archangel Cemetery in Palatine.

"FIRE" ✓

2-15-73

Wheeling and State officials Friday morning investigated the charred ruins of the Devitt home.

Wheeling Fire Chief, Berny Koeppen and Deputy State Fire Marshall, Joseph Valle, discuss the possible origin and causes of the tragic fire which caused two deaths.

A young married couple died, Friday, when fire gutted their home at 705 S. Merle Ln., Wheeling.

Barbara Devitt, 20, died at Holy Family Hospital at 4:25 a.m. She suffered severe burns and smoke inhalation.

Her husband Michael, 24, was dead on arrival at the hospital, apparently a victim of smoke inhalation.

Firemen had found Barbara at the kitchen door, according to the report. However, she had not opened the door and firemen had to move her to get through the door.

Michael was found in the bedroom on the floor near the bed, according to the report.

A neighbor, Larry Steward, 586 S. Merle Ln., was returning home after work when he saw the fire.

According to Steward, he ran to the rear of the house to awaken anyone inside. Failing to do so, he ran to the home of William Null, 711 S. Merle Ln. and called the fire department.

Wheeling Police said the fire started approximately 3:38 a.m. in the one story frame ranch house.

After investigating the scene of the fire, Wheeling Fire Chief Berny Koeppen and Deputy State Fire Marshall, Joe Valle had eliminated foul play as a cause.

Fire Chief Koeppen said, Friday afternoon, they had determined that the fire started in the living room by the sofa and lamp.

Also, he said, they were investigating the possibility of accidental causes.

Chief Koeppen said that at this time they could not say whether or not they could come up with the true cause of the fire.

DEATH
In Memory of
May Ashley Dickson

"If I can stop one heart from breaking
 I shall not live in vain:
 If I can ease one life the aching,
 Or cool one pain,
 Or keep one fainting robin
 Unto his nest again,
 I shall not live in vain."

These lines of the poet aptly express the ruling passion in the life of Mae Ashley Dickson, who slipped away from her family and friends, last Saturday afternoon at the Ottawa Sanatorium, where she had been a patient since July.

Miss Dickson came to Wheeling in the spring of 1925, when she took up her duties as resident nurse at Childerley. She came from the Children's Memorial hospital where her duties had taxed her strength severely, and it was thought the duties at Childerley were less arduous and the environment more favorable. However, the fields of service are just as white, as they were in the days of the Master, and His willing servants find many to minister unto. She conscientiously served the many who make up the family of Childerley and then willing to go the extra mile, found the neighbor who was in need, and numerous families in our community could testify to her helpful interest in times of sickness.

After a severe attack of the flu last winter she found it necessary to resign her position. She hoped to regain strength by resting and went west to spend a month with a friend in California. The trip sapped her strength, rather than mending it. After spending some time with her father at Fox Lake, Wisconsin, she went to spend the summer with a friend, Miss L. Garratt, in Michigan. While there her condition became so alarming that a physician was called and removal to the sanatorium found necessary.

Funeral services were held in Wisconsin at the home of her father, Mr. Henry Dickson, on Wednesday, Oct. 16.

The curtain in the drama of life seemingly has dropped in mid-act, and yet the many who know and loved her, also know, that "She has not lived in vain."

Former Wheeling High athlete mourned

BY CASS CLIATT Daily Herald Staff Writer 09/23/03

Melissa Diego

To Melissa Diego, it didn't matter who you were — nothing could stop the former track star at Wheeling High School from hugging you.

The 19-year-old's affectionate nature won her many friends, and all of them mourned Monday for the 2002 graduate who died in a week-end car crash.

Diego was one of four or five passengers in a van that was hit by a cab Friday at a Chicago intersection.

Scores of students have lighted candles and left flowers in front of the Wheeling home where she lived with her parents before starting school at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

"It's all because of the respect they have for my daughter," said Eliseo R. Diego, Melissa's father. "She, in fact, was a big sister to a lot the of other runners at the high school who are doing very well in state competition."

Diego began running in track and field at MacArthur Middle School, running with a team that went to the state finals and won the state title her eighth-grade year, her father said.

At Wheeling High School, she was a member of the varsity girls cross country team for four years, winning several awards on a team that won first place in the Mid-Suburban Cross-Country League.

Through it all, she made time to be the "best big sister" and support her 17-year-old brother, Ryan — now a senior at Wheeling High School — at his volleyball, wrestling and cross country events.

"At UIC, the Flames inquired about her and wanted her to join," Eliseo Diego said of the university's track team. "She was accepted as part of the team and she was preparing for their first big meet when this happened."

Diego's family thinks she was leaving work at a Chicago restaurant near the intersection of Ohio Street and Michigan Avenue when the van she was riding in went through a red light Friday.

She was rushed to Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center but died of multiple injuries.

Diego's parents were vacationing in Wisconsin, and family members wouldn't tell them about her death until they rushed home Saturday morning.

"The message that I have imparted to all the kids that have hugged me since this happened: Buckle up. I don't think Melissa was wearing her seat belt," Eliseo Diego said.

The last time her parents saw their daughter alive was when she stopped at their home last Tuesday to drop off a peace lily.

"She wrote on an index card for her mom, 'I love you,'" her father said. "And she was gone. She called later to ask if the peace lily had bloomed."

"I think my wife has made peace with the fact that Melissa is now in heaven and her purpose in our life was to keep us merry the 19 years she was with us," he said.

Wheeling High School students observed a moment of silence Monday to remember Diego and will do so again today, said Associate Principal Kelvin Lane.

A picture of Diego and her brother has been placed in the cross country team's display case at Wheeling High School, surrounded by the labels "competitor," "friend" and other words that classmates use to describe her.

Many friends are expected to attend the visitation for Diego, which will be 3 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at Glueckert Funeral Home, 1520 N. Arlington Heights Road, Arlington Heights.

"The classmates of my daughter and my son, especially the parents of the cross country team, have been unbelievably helpful in our grave times of need," Eliseo Diego said. "We're so thankful."

Melissa Diego's funeral will begin with prayers at 9:15 a.m. Thursday at the funeral home, with a Mass celebrated at 10 a.m. at St. Alphonsus Catholic Church, 411 N. Wheeling Road, Prospect Heights.

Village to miss Bob Dill's dedication

Lisa Schab
staff correspondent

NOV 4 '82

Ralph Perricone tells a story about Bob Dill that seems to sum up why the 17 year Wheeling village employee will be missed so much after his retirement last week. As a water vice technician, Dill also served as a volunteer firefighter and, according to Perricone, fire department captain, he rarely missed a call—no matter what.

"In fact, I remember one time he showed up in a fire dress in a tuxedo. He had answered a call while attending his daughter's wedding. That's the kind of dedication this man has. He is a very, very conscientious man."

Dill, who lived on Thelma Court in Wheeling, retired Friday from his position as water vice technician. He also left the presidency of the Wheeling Volunteer Firefighters Association. And judging from the comments of fellow workers, he will be missed.

"Bob was a very loyal and giving person," said Beulah Peterson, administrative assistant personnel in the village offices. "He was always very willing to help, an extremely generous individual."

"Dedicated" was the word Fire Chief Bernie Koepfen used to describe Dill. "A very dedicated person."

Dill, 51, was dedicated not only to his job and his fire department responsibilities, but also to his family. Bob and his wife Betty are the parents of six. Debra, 27, is the oldest.

BOB
DILL

Sharon is 24, Sandra 19, Robert Jr. 18, and Tracey, 14. The Dills had another daughter, Karen, who died of leukemia several years ago.

For 13 of his 28 years of marriage, Bob Dill worked two fulltime jobs simultaneously. Along with his duties for the village, he spent his nights as a cook at what used to be Steve's Restaurant in Wheeling (now Enrico Brothers). Providing for a family the size of the Dills obviously doesn't come easy, but Bob has never let them down. Some people would say that they couldn't afford to do that.

"It's a matter of taking whatever comes along. I didn't wait around for any perfect job; I took what I could until I could find something better," he says.

Maybe some of Bob's hard-working determination came from his experiences as a boy growing up on his father's 1,100-acre farm near Rockford. Bob was forced to quit school at the age of 11. His father had broken his back so young Bob had to help out on the farm. He says he doesn't think he's missed a day's work since then.

The job that brought Bob to Wheeling initially was his position with the Herzog Construction Co. He remembers helping with the construction of Dunhurst, and later buying a house in the same area. When Herzog moved to Florida, Bob stayed behind, and then applied for a position with the Village of Wheeling. He worked there from 1959 to 1962, and then from 1967 until his retirement last week.

Bob became involved with the volunteer fire department in 1968, and several years ago he was cited for bravery for his involvement in the rescue of a man trapped inside a plane that had crashed at Palwaukee Airport.

"The volunteering was my hobby," Bob says.

The dedication Dill showed the village wasn't a one way street. His daughter, Karen, discovered she had cancer a short time after her wedding and had to be moved to the Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in Seattle for special treatments. Bob and Betty took out a second mortgage on their home to pay the bills, but the village came through for them.

Headed by Lorraine Lark, Bob's co-workers collected several thousand dollars to help defer Karen's medical expenses.

Bob and Betty, and three of their children, Sandy, Sally and Tracey, will be moving to the island of Oahu in Hawaii.

"Is there anything he'll miss about leaving Wheeling and all it has held for him?"

"Friends," answers Bob. "The people I've worked with. If I were staying here, I would never quit the village and go to work anywhere else."

I am home in heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in heaven at last.
There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth-
You shall rest in God's own land.
When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

Wheeling truck driver dies from crash injuries

By Paul Biasco

A Wheeling man died Friday, four days after his semitrailer truck rolled down an embankment in rural Maryland near the Pennsylvania border, police said Monday.

Victor Doros' vehicle veered off the two-lane roadway about 10:30 a.m. Sept. 24, and he was airlifted from scene in critical condition, said Maryland State Police.

Police said the semitrailer truck rolled about 360 feet down an embankment off the side of Interstate 68.

Doros was taken to the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center, where he was pronounced dead on Friday.

The semitrailer was the only vehicle involved in the crash, and police said it is likely they will never know what caused the vehicle, which was transporting onions, to veer off the roadway.

Trucker whose tractor-trailer crashed on I-68 near Hancock has died

10:14 AM CDT, October 1, 2012

A tractor-trailer driver has died from injuries he sustained when the rig plunged 100 yards down an embankment last week near Hancock. advertisement

Victor Doros, 26, of Wheeling, Ill., died Friday at R Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Medical Center in Baltimore, a hospital spokeswoman said.

The accident happened the morning of Sept. 24 as Doros was driving the tractor-trailer east on Interstate 68.

Hancock Fire Chief Danny Shirley said the tractor-trailer went off the south shoulder of the roadway and rolled down the embankment, splintering a tree on the way down.

He said firefighters had a difficult time getting to the crash because the tractor-trailer came to rest in a wooded area with briars and fallen trees.

Doros was driven by ambulance to a landing zone west of the crash site, then flown to Baltimore by a Maryland State Police helicopter.

HANCOCK — The driver of a tractor-trailer was critically injured Monday morning when his rig went down an embankment off Interstate 68 about five miles west of Hancock, Maryland State Police said.

Lt. Tom Woodward said 26-year-old Victor Doros, of Wheeling, Ill., was flown to R Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Medical Center in Baltimore.

Doros was listed in critical condition Tuesday morning, a hospital spokeswoman said.

“The driver had substantial injuries,” Hancock Fire Chief Danny Shirley said at the scene.

Shirley said rescue workers put the injured man in an ambulance and drove him to a landing zone west of the crash site, where a Maryland State Police helicopter was waiting.

He said the tractor-trailer was traveling east on I-68, went off the south shoulder of the road and rolled about 100 yards down an embankment, splintering a tree on its way down.

Onions that the truck was hauling were strewn from the top of the embankment to the bottom.

The trailer came to rest on the driver’s side. The rest of the vehicle wasn’t visible through the trees.

Shirley said firefighters had a difficult time getting to the truck because it came to rest in an area covered with heavy briars and fallen trees.

“It wasn’t easy,” he said.

The accident was reported about 10:30 a.m., and the driver was freed from the rig by 11:30 a.m.

Shirley said rescuers couldn’t use saws to free the driver because diesel fuel was spilled on the ground, and they didn’t want to cause a spark. Instead, he said, portable hydraulic devices were used to rescue the driver, who was partially pinned inside of the rig.

A Hazmat crew from Washington County Special Operations was on the scene to clean up the spilled antifreeze and diesel fuel from the truck.

Shirley said heavy-duty tow trucks would be used to salvage the vehicle. He anticipated the operation would take “at least several hours.”

Former Des Plaines, Wheeling official dies

BY SARA HOOKER

05/29/2014

In work, Franklyn Wallace "Wally" Douthwaite acted as city manager of Des Plaines, Wheeling and Wood Dale, among other places.

In retirement, he played bridge, fished and watched a lot of baseball, rooting loudest for his Cincinnati Reds.

In Summerville, South Carolina, on Monday, he collapsed and never regained consciousness, his wife of 38 years, Nancy, said on Wednesday.

Medical examiners believe he had a massive heart attack or a brain aneurysm, Nancy said.

"It was such a shock," she said. "We were very happy here, and we loved it here."

The couple met while at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. His first city manager job took them to Greenacres, Florida, and later Gresham, Oregon, and Moline, Illinois, before he was hired in Des Plaines in 1993.

He left in January 2001 for Springboro, Ohio, before being hired in Wheeling in 2002. He was asked to resign in 2006. He started in Wood Dale in 2008 and was dismissed in 2010.

"It was a good career. He got to meet a lot of interesting people," Nancy said. "It was really rewarding for him. He really enjoyed his job."

Wally

After he left Wood Dale, he retired, and the couple moved to the suburbs of Charleston, South Carolina, to a retirement community.

"We've met a lot of people throughout his city manager career, a lot of fine people, and we still keep in touch with a lot of them," Nancy said.

People may pay their respects at a visitation set for 3 p.m. June 7 at the First Congregational Church of Des Plaines, followed by a funeral service at 4 p.m.

Douthwaite is survived by Nancy, and two daughters Laurel, 28, and Christine, 24, both of Nashville, Tennessee.

Lived a life of love

Barbara Dsida 11.1.13

Barbara (nee York) Dsida passed away peacefully on October 30, 2013, one day after her 78th birthday. Barb was a wonderful wife, mother, grandma, friend, sister, daughter, teacher, neighbor, and colleague. The love of her life was her husband, Douglas, with whom she shared 56 years of friendship, joy, passion, compassion, humor, and faith. Barb was as devoted to Doug as any spouse could be. She also gave endlessly to her children and was tremendously proud of them, as well as their spouses and their children. She lived most of her adult life in Des Plaines (also in Wheeling, Arlington Heights, and Sao Paulo, Brazil) and was a lifelong Cubs fan, a competitive bowler and a Jay's Potato Chip addict. She was also an avid reader, card player, political junkie, and crossword puzzle devotee. More than anything else, Barb lived a life of love. Her home and her heart were always open to those in need. She leaves behind her husband Douglas, her sons, daughters and grandchildren. She has left them all, as well as her friends, with a legacy of love.

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!" Isaiah 6:8. Barb's life and her return to God will be celebrated with a funeral Mass at Addolorata Villa, 555 McHenry Road, Wheeling on Friday, November 1 at 11:00 a.m. Followed by a memorial gathering in the parlor until 4 pm.

In lieu of flowers, contributions to Angel's Place at www.angelsplace.com in Barb's honor would be appreciated.

School Queen Dies In Crash Near Wheeling

Linda G. Edwards, 18, 1965 Wheeling High School homecoming queen, was killed Friday afternoon in an auto collision at Palatine and Wolf just south of Wheeling.

Miss Edwards, of 420 Meadowbrook in Wheeling, was dead on arrival at Holy Family Hospital in Des Plaines.

County sheriff's police said her car was struck broadside by an auto driven by Mrs. Linda L. Batchelder, 22, of 303 Crestwood, Northfield.

Miss Edwards, alone in her sports car, was driving south on Wolf and Mrs. Batchelder was headed west on Palatine, Sgt. Flood said. He filed charges of reckless homicide and running a stop sign against Mrs. Batchelder, who was in satisfactory condition at Holy Family Hospital.

Rolling Meadows woman killed when truck crashes into median

Like 20 Tweet 4 Share 0 g+1 0 49

(ROLLING MEADOWS) A Rolling Meadows woman was killed Tuesday night when the truck she was driving crashed into a median in the northwest suburb.

Tiffany Ensalaco, 34, was driving a blue 1994 Ford pickup southbound on Illinois Route 53 south of Kirchoff Road in Rolling Meadows just after 7 p.m., when she lost control of the vehicle and it drifted across the road into a concrete median, according to police and the Cook County Medical Examiner's office.

She was ejected from the pickup onto the northbound shoulder of Route 53, Illinois State Police said.

Ensalaco, of the 3700 block of Wren Lane in Rolling Meadows, was taken to Northwest Community Hospital in Arlington Heights, where she was pronounced dead at 7:22 p.m., the medical examiner's office said.

One northbound lane and both southbound lanes of Route 53 were temporarily closed to traffic as a result of the crash.
