Helen Marie Miehle will be from 9 a.m. until the time of a memorial Mass at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 18, at St. Edna Catholic Church, 2525 N. Arlington Heights Road, Arlington Heights. Interment will be in All Saints Cemetery. Born Oct. 24, 1912, in Marquette, Mich., to Frank E. and Joanna Cox, she passed away Aug. 30, 2010, in Skokie. Helen led a very full and wonderful life. In her 97 years, she was a CBS radio announcer in California, a model, manager of the Lad and Lassie Kindergarten school in Evanston, and president and owner of M & C Blueprint Company in Skokie for more than 25 years. She was elected president of the Chicago North Lady Elks Club for a year's term and developed many long lasting friendships still in existence today. Helen was able to participate in many charity events to help those that did not have the means to help themselves. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. In retirement, she had two holes-in-one on Florida golf courses, which her husband "Bud," the accomplished golfer of the family, could never achieve. She was on a traveling bowling team in Florida with a few 299 games which helped her teammates win a few championships. Throughout her life, Helen always had a special sparkle, making friends everywhere she went. Helen lived independently, enjoying each day with her incredible mind that was sharp as a tack, and her wonderful sense of humor. She loved every minute of her life and lived it to the fullest. Helen lived most of her 97 years in between Chicago and Florida. She valued her family and friends above all else. She took responsibility for her family when they couldn't take care of themselves and her door was always open for family and friends in need. Helen's greatest joys in life were her husband, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, family, friends and especially her hobbies. Helen will be terribly missed. Helen is survived by her daughter, Kathleen (Robert J.) Leahy; her grandchildren, Bonnye (Jim) Lapotka, Bill (Jennifer) Nichols and Mike Nichols; and her great-grandchildren, Nicholas Ludford, Clifford and Anthony Colangelo, Cooper and Scarlett Nichols and Shelby Lapotka. She was preceded in death by her husband, retired Chicago Deputy Chief Fire Marshal, Louis "Bud" Miehle, whom she married Oct. 30, 1943; and her daughter, JoAnne Meyer. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be given to the Midwest CareCenter, 2050 Claire Court, Glenview, IL 60025. The family wishes to thank the caring nurses at Midwest Palliative & Hospice Care Center in Skokie for attending to Helen in such a caring way. Debbie R. Milarski

A celebration of the life of Debbie R. Milarski (nee Scanlon) will be held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, Jan. 21, at St. Joseph the Worker Church, 181 W. Dundee Road, Wheeling.

Heaven received another angel Jan. 14, 2008. Debbie was born March 30, 1956, to Ted and Grace Scanlon. She attended Wheeling High School, where she met her soul mate and love of her life, Wayne R. Milarski. They shared 28 years together. Her pride and joy are her three children, Derek, Jamie and Jennifer. Residing in Vernon Hills, Debbie loved to contribute to the community in a variety of ways. She was active at Libertyville High School, raising funds for the stadium lights where her son Derek played for the Wildcats. She was active at Vernon Hills High School, where her daughter Jamie was a gymnast and daughter Jenni played water polo. For several years she was the entertainment director for the Vernon Hills Annual Summer Celebration. Having a love for Christmas, Debbie, along with her family, would sponsor a family for the holidays. Her love was sports in every way, shape, and form. She lived for her Chicago Cubs and loved to attend the sports events of her nieces and nephews. Debbie wanted nothing for herself in life except for the happiness of others.

She is survived by her husband, Wayne; children, Derek, Jamie and Jennifer; father, Ted C. Scanlon of Wheeling; sisters, Sally Kowal of Arlington Heights, Penny (Jim) Swift of Elk Grove Village and Regina (Rick) Weber of Barrington; brothers, David (Oliva) Scanlon and Paul (Sherry) Scanlon, both of Wheeling; and sister-in-law, Nancy (Ron) Sullivan of Crystal Lake.

Debbie entered her new life in the loving embrace of her mother, Grace.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to your favorite charity in Debbie's honor.

Debbie R. Milarski ~ 1956-2008

A born community leader for Wheeling, Vernon Hills

BY EILEEN O. DADAY

Daily Herald Correspondent

At first glance, Debbie R. Milarski had an enviable job, as entertainment director for the village of Vernon Hills' Summer Celebration.

She met dozens of celebrities and bands over her seven-year term, but she also had to accommodate their sometimes quirky demands, as detailed in the riders of their contracts.

Family members vividly recall singer Rick Springfield, who wanted to be met at the airport with a dozen roses in hand, as well as have another dozen roses in the limousine.

Another band wanted M&Ms on hand backstage — but no blue ones — leading to Mrs. Milarski picking them all out.

"She would just laugh at some of the demands," says her husband, Wayne, whom she met at Wheeling High School. "But she got a kick out of being involved, and being able to be a part of it, and bringing these bands to the community."

Mrs. Milarski passed away Jan. 14 after a long battle with cancer. The Wheeling native and former Vernon Hills resident was 51.

For Mrs. Milarski, community involvement was a family tradition.

She grew up as the middle of six children, of Ted and Grace Scanlon in Wheeling. For much of her childhood, her father was the village president of Wheeling, and her mother volunteered with many of its special events.

"My father always said she'd have been one heck of a politician," says her younger brother, Paul, of Wheeling. Ted Scanlon was president of Wheeling from 1965 to 1977. "She was a people person, and a real go-getter."

Her days would start early, overseeing the loading dock at the Jewel Food Store in Vernon Hills, including supervising its loading and receiving, and ordering new inventory for the week ahead.

Her morning shift allowed her to be home when her three children, Derek, Jamie and Jennifer, returned from school, and be involved in their activities before she headed to Summer Celebration meetings at night.

Working the four-day festival every year was always a highlight, family members said, and Mrs. Milarski turned it into a family affair.

Her husband and brother Paul worked security behind the main stage, while her children worked on the grounds as well.

"She always stayed in the background and never drew any attention to herself," Paul Scanlon adds, "except for when her name was announced with the rest of the committee members, and she always drew some of the loudest applause."

Besides her husband, three children and brother, Mrs. Milarski is survived by her father, Ted C. Scanlon of Wheeling; sisters, Sally Kowal of Arlington Heights, Penny (Jim) Swift of Elk Grove Village and Regina (Rick) Weber of Barrington and brother David (Olivia) Scanlon of Wheeling.

Services have been held.

Who's who in Wheeling

Look County Herald March 17, 1950

Arthur Moller, friendly proprietor of the Chicago House, has come a long way from working in the steel mills as a young boy to the successful businessman he is today.

He was born April 15, 1890, in Orebro, Sweden, which is about 150 miles from Stockholm. There he was employed in the steel mills until he was 19 when he worked his way to England and then to America.

When he landed in New York, life must have seemed very confusing as Art could speak no English. When he was asked where he wanted to go he said Chicago because that was the only other place in America he'd ever heard of!

Arriving in Chicago, friendless and handicapped by not being able to speak English, he secured a job with the Bowman Dairy Company. He held this job for the next 17 years. Having worked for a dairy and also having owned several taverns, Mr. Moller laughingly says that he's been in the liquid business most of his life.

During the next years he attended night classes at Carl Shurz high school in Chicago and learned to speak English.

He also met Tessie Lux at a picnic at Riverview Park. She became Mrs. Moller in October of 1917. They had two sons and a daughter, Grace.

After prohibition Mr. Moller opened the Irving Inn at 5835 Irving Park, Chicago. He sold this business in May of 1941 when he came to Wheeling and operated the Dam Inn at the corner of Milwaukee ave. and Hintz rd. In 1944 he moved to the Chicago House where he is living now.

Mrs. Moller passed away May 21, 1948. Art and his daughter, Grace, lived alone at the Chicago House until last December 3 when Grace became the bride of Arthur "Bud" Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller of Wheeling. The couple now lives in a lovely upstairs apartment with Mr. Moller and Bud assists in the business.

Art enjoys owning the Chicago House, which is one of the oldest establishments in Wheeling, and being a Wheeling businessman. Since he has owned the Chicago House it has earned the reputation of being a place of friendship and enjoyment. He is also an active member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Businessmen's association.

Art is now recovering from a recent operation at St. Francis hospital in Evanston where he was seriously ill for several weeks.

First Assistant Fire Chief Arthur 'Bud' Miller Dies

Arthur "Bud" Miller, First Asst. Fire Chief in Wheeling, died Wednesday in Highland Park Hospital, after suffering a heart attack Monday night.

Miller, a Wheeling fireman for more than 26 years, had been first assistant chief to Bernhardt Koeppen for almost 20 years. Koeppen said the second assistant chief will replace Miller until the position can be officially filled.

Koeppen said the department has suffered a great loss in Miller's death. "He was someone you could always count on. He was my assistant since I took over as chief, and it is a personal loss for me."

THE 49-YEAR old fireman owned the Jeffery Bowling Lanes in Wheeling since 1954. Aside from the fire department, he was also a member of the Amvets Post 66 and the Des Plaines Elks 1526.

He is survived by his son Jeffery; and sisters, Mrs. Ardith Laurence and Mrs. Marilyn Kelm of Wheeling and Mrs. Donna Jean Sanders of Palatine.

Visitation is from 2 to 10 p.m. today at the Oehler Funeral Home in Des Plaines. Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. Saturday, with the Rev. Royal E. Spiedel officiating. Burial will be in the Ridgewood Cemetery. The family requests that memorials be in the form of donations to the Heart Fund.

THE FARM JUST north of the Fritsch residence was occupied by Conrad Miller, who was born in Germany in 1828, son of Jacob and Catherine Miller. He came to Cook county in 1837 with his parents who located in Wheeling township and engaged in farming. Mr. Miller learned the trade of a shoemaker early in life and followed that business for about 36 years. He worked in Chicago until 1860 when he moved to Wheeling township and located on the farm where he engaged in farming after pursuing his trade in Wheeling for a short time. Mr. Periolet says that there were at least five cobblers in Wheeling at that time, which made quite a bit of competition.

Miller was married in 1849 to Miss Lydia Holmes; they had eight children - Munnie, Isaac, Charles, Thomas, Frank, Medora, Lillie and William.

He served as a school director at the Palwaukee school for ten years. The old Miller farm is now occupied by the Kutz family.

Obituaries

Glenn E. Miller; led Lake County Board

By Kenan Heise

Glenn E. Miller, 63, a member of the Lake County Board, served from 1979 to 1984 as its president. He owned and managed the Wheeling Shopping Center at Dundee Road and Milwaukee Avenue in Wheeling and formerly owned and ran the Geest-Wheeling Coal and Lumber Companies in Aptakisic and Wheeling.

A memorial service for Mr. Miller, a resident of Long Grove, will be held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Long Grove Community Church, Robert Parker Coffin Road, Long Grove. He died Saturday of a heart attack while driving on McHenry Road in Wheeling.

"He was an honest man fighting for good government," said his wife, Ruth. "He had the attitude everyone could try to solve a problem individually or they could pull together to resolve it. He was particularly proud of his efforts in establishing a comprehensive zoning plan for the county and in working through the county's solid waste program."

Mr. Miller attended Butler University and starred on the school's basketball team. During World War II, he was a major in the Army, serving in the Pacific.

When he returned, he went to work for the family-owned lumber yard, founded by his grandfather, Emil Geest, almost 40 years earlier. In 1957, he constructed the Wheeling Shopping Center.

After retiring from the lumber companies in 1969, he spent the next few years working for the youth of the community, serving on the high school board and the Lake County drug abuse commission. He actively supported school athletics and after-school athletic programs.

After a friend suggested that he seek political office, he was elected to the Lake County Board in 1974. At the time of his death, he was a member of the Law Enforcement/Judicial and Build-ding/Health Committees.

Glenn E. Miller in 1978

Mr. Miller was on the board of NACO, the National Association of Counties, and was one of only two Illinois representatives.

Besides his wife, he is survived by three sons, Gary, Thomas and Stephen; four daughters, Lucille McCullough, Susan McCabe, Sally Paquet and Karen Visoky; 14 grandchildren; and a brother, George.

Who's who in Wheeling

Wheeling County Herald March 17, 1935-0

Arthur Moller, friendly proprietor of the Chicago House, has come a long way from working in the steel mills as a young boy to the successful businessman he is today.

He was born April 15, 1890, in Orebro, Sweden, which is about 150 miles from Stockholm. There he was employed in the steel mills until he was 19 when he worked his way to England and then to America.

When he landed in New York, life must have seemed very confusing as Art could speak no English. When he was asked where he wanted to go he said Chicago because that was the only other place in America he'd ever heard of!

Arriving in Chicago, friendless and handicapped by not being able to speak English, he secured a job with the Bowman Dairy Company. He held this job for the next 17 years. Having worked for a dairy and also having owned several taverns, Mr. Moller laughingly says that he's been in the liquid business most of his life.

During the next years he attended night classes at Carl Shurz high school in Chicago and learned to speak English.

He also met Tessie Lux at a picnic at Riverview Park. She became Mrs. Moller in October of 1917. They had two sons and a daughter, Grace.

After prohibition Mr. Moller opened the Irving Inn at 5835 Irving Park, Chicago. He sold this business in May of 1941 when he came to Wheeling and operated the Dam Inn at the corner of Milwaukee ave. and Hintz rd. In 1944 he moved to the Chicago House where he is living now.

Mrs. Moller passed away May 21, 1948. Art and his daughter, Grace, lived alone at the Chicago House until last December 3 when Grace became the bride of Arthur "Bud" Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller of Wheeling. The couple now lives in a lovely upstairs apartment with Mr. Moller and Bud assists in the business.

Art enjoys owning the Chicago House, which is one of the oldest establishments in Wheeling, and being a Wheeling businessman. Since he has owned the Chicago House it has earned the reputation of being a place of friendship and enjoyment. He is also an active member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Businessmen's association.

Art is now recovering from a recent operation at St. Francis hospital in Evanston where he was seriously ill for several weeks.

Simona Miller 7-27-03

Wheeling resident Simona Miller, 26, died Feb. 14 at the Grandview Hospital in Ironwood, Mich., as a result of a snowmobile accident. She was born Aug. 11, 1976, in Lithuania.

Mrs. Miller had worked as a physical therapist. She is survived by her husband, Stephen; a son, Edvinas Zuolys; her parents, Alfredas and Irena Sinkevicius; and a sibling, Audrius Sinkevicius.

Funeral services were held Feb. 21 at Meadows Funeral Home, Rolling Meadows. Memorial contributions may be made to her son's educational fund, in care of Stephen Miller.

Wheeling woman dies

BY CASS CLATT

Daily Herald Staff Writer

2-19-03

Family, friends remember resident who

Simona Miller was a free spirit, willing to try anything.

Sadly, the trait that her husband loved most about the 26-year-old Wheeling woman also led to her death.

Miller, a nanny who was only recently married, died in a snowmobiling accident during a Valentine's Day getaway with her husband and friends in Michigan. Her husband, Stephen Miller, was back at home in Wheeling Tuesday, lamenting the loss of "a giving spirit who was willing to do anything for anybody."

"This was the first time she had ridden a snowmobile, but I had been doing it for years, so she was willing to go with me," Miller said. "She was very excited to go."

The Millers were on a popular snowmobile trail in Ironwood of Michigan's Upper Peninsula on Feb. 14.

Simona Miller was third in a line of four snowmobilers riding single file around 1 p.m., when she lost control of her vehicle, said Gogebic County sheriff's police.

"Her husband was behind her when they came upon a 90-degree corner," Deputy Cory Aijala said. "She attempted to take the corner to the right, and her machine went straight into the trees with her on it. We concluded it was speed and inexperience."

was killed in accident in Michigan

Paramedics pronounced Miller dead at the scene. She died of head and neck injuries, police said.

Stephen Miller said he had been riding Gogebic County's trails for five years, but that has changed. "I'm not going to do that anymore," he said.

Simona Miller's father will arrive from Lithuania today for a memorial service being held for her at 8 p.m. Friday at Meadows Funeral Home, 3615 Kirchoff Road, Rolling Meadows.

Simona Miller immigrated from Lithuania in 2001, later meeting her husband at a wedding. Stephen and Simona Miller were married themselves last August.

"When she came to America, she took martial arts, she was going to try an art class ... she liked new experiences," Miller said. "Over there, she didn't really have many choices. She worked at a local grocery store."

After coming to America, Simona Miller got a job as a nanny for a Glen-coe couple. "She was my kids' best friend, and she was the light of their lives," Ruth Epstein said of her 3-year-old son and 6-year-old daughter. "She took our son to physical therapy, because our younger son has special needs."

WORLD WAR II ARMY VETERAN
WHEELING TOWNSHIP ELEMENTARY
DISTRICT #21-1957

Northwest suburban educator Minkoff dies at age 81

BY AMES BOYKIN

Daily Herald Staff Writer 10-23-02

A former principal and teacher at Wheeling and Elk Grove township elementary schools who shared his love of storytelling with his students has died.

Funeral services for Sol M. Minkoff, 81, of Palatine and formerly of Mount Prospect will be held at 1 p.m. today at Beth Tikvah Congregation, 300 Hillcrest Blvd. in Hoffman Estates.

Interment will be in Shalom Cemetery in Palatine.

Minkoff served in the Army during World War II and began teaching in Wheeling Township Elementary District 21 in 1957. In 1964, Minkoff began working in Elk Grove Township Elementary District 59.

After 13 years as principal of Juliette Low Elementary School in Arlington Heights, Minkoff retired in 1983.

His portrait, which was donated by the school's parent-teacher organization when he retired, still hangs in the hallway.

"He was very involved with the children. He enjoyed the children and knew most of them on a first-name basis," said Christopher Melby, Juliette Low's assistant to the principal.

Minkoff was fond of organizing "choral readings," during which children would read in groups, Melby said.

Minkoff loved to tell stories, daughter-in-law Ruth Minkoff said.

He also loved music, she said. He played the trombone in a band during his time in the Army and continued playing after his service.

Minkoff enjoyed taking students to see the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, for which he worked as a docent. Minkoff also volunteered in Northwest Community Hospital's pediatrics unit.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Beth Tikvah Congregation, 300 Hillcrest Blvd., Hoffman Estates, 60195.

MARILYN MINTER

Marilyn Minter Marilyn Minter (nee Konitz), 82, found her final peace on this earth surrounded by her close family, on Dec. 22, 2010. She was a longtime resident of Wheeling, Illinois, since 1962. Born in Chicago, she spent most of her life there, where she met and married Edward Liss. They had three children together, Gary, Nannette and Michelle, along with two children from Ed's previous marriage, Edward Jr. (Sonny) and Sherry, whom she loved and created wonderful memories with. She later married

Thomas Minter, a loving husband and wonderful stepfather. The family then moved to Wheeling, where they had many happy years together Until his death in 1987. Marilyn was a woman of many talents. She was a hard-working waitress while raising three children. She also freelanced as a commercial artist in her 30s and other jobs where she could use her creative talents. Art was always something she loved and pursued. Because of her natural abilities, this love of art and color showed in everything she did. Marilyn held a seat on the Wheeling Appearance Commission and Beautification Committee for many years. She was dedicated to improving and maintaining the village she grew to love. She voted on many issues to increase the esthetic appeal of the village and make it the attractive community it has become today. She took great pride in seeing many of their ideas have a positive influence in Wheeling. Outside of her love for all animals, for which she was well known, her other great enjoyment came from her love of certain sports. Foremost, her beloved Chicago Cubs and Bears, whom she cheered for her entire life. She also enjoyed bowling with her good friends, something that kept her vital and in good spirits. Preceding her in death were her parents, William and Matilda Konitz; her sister, Charlotte; her brothers, William and Kenneth; along with her stepson, Sonny. As she was deeply loved, she will be deeply missed. She is survived by her son, Gary Liss; her daughters, Nannette (Joe) Sinke, Michelle Liss (Michael) Loser; and her stepdaughter, Sherry (Vern) Lung; also her grandchildren, Kenneth Nilson Jr., Dawn Schintgen and Michael Sinke; along with two great-grandchildren, Jake Schintgen and Dakota Nilson. Services will be held on Friday, Jan. 7, from 3 to 8 p.m. at Kolssak Funeral Home, 189 S. Milwaukee Ave. (two blocks south of Dundee Road), Wheeling, 847-537-6600. Funeral prayers will be Saturday, Jan. 8, at 9:15 a.m., leaving for a 10 a.m. Life Celebration Mass at St. Joseph The Worker Parish on Dundee Road, Wheeling. Cremation will be private. A luncheon will follow Mass. In lieu of flowers, Marilyn's last wish was that all monies be given to small no-kill animal shelters of her choice. The family will accept and donate to these various shelters. Plants and flowers are pretty, but animals warmed her heart. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.funerals.pro.

Who's Who in Wheeling

Cook County Herald June 2, 1950

Frank Miramonti, co-owner of the Union Hotel, is strictly an Illinois man.

Frank was born and raised in Herrin, southern Illinois.

After graduating from the University of Illinois in 1936 where he studied electrical engineering, he attended night school for four years at the Illinois Institute of Technology, working for his masters degree.

During the war, Frank worked for the Navy Inspection Department.

He operated a tavern in Cicero from 1941 until 1947. He then came to Wheeling to the Union Hotel where he is in partnership with George Palm.

Frank is a member of the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce, the Lions club, and the Elks.

Recently, Frank built a new home in Northbrook where he now lives with his wife and three children, George, 13; Philip, 12; and Johnnie, 18 months.

WHEELING - Beverly J. Modlin (nee Jobs), 81, of Wheeling for 44 years, died in a tragic accident in New Mexico on vacation with her children Robert and Susan this week. She is survived by her daughter, Susan M. Hines and her children, Michael and Anne Hines; and her son, Robert C. Modlin and his children, Nicholas, David and Christopher Modlin. She was their loving mother and friend, grandmother of their children, and wife to their father who died 29 years ago. She has taught hundreds of piano students in the northwest suburbs the entirety of her years here. She was a long-standing member of the Northwest Music Teacher's Association, PEO, Theta Sorority, and staff member of Kingswood United Methodist Church where she served the church as their organist, music director, and Alleluia Choir Director at various times of her career. She was also a tireless volunteer in the church food pantry, "PADS" program assisting the homeless in the community, and so much more. She loved to travel, played a not-so-good Bridge game, hosted beautiful piano recitals, enjoyed movies with her "movie group," spending time with her wonderful friends too many to count, and making and teaching beautiful music. She was a gifted pianist and organist, teacher, mentor, mother and friend. The children wish to thank the multitude of kind and brave strangers, park service, Los Alamos Police Department and police chaplain who comforted and helped them at the Bandelier National Monument park where the accident occurred. They felt wrapped in comfort in their time of need and continue to feel the love of their community. Thank you to all who loved their mother. Visitation will be Sunday, Oct. 9, from 3 p.m. until the services at 4 p.m. at Kingswood United Methodist Church, Buffalo Grove, with Pastor James Preston officiating.

Afterglow
I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways.
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.

Wheeling man dies in garage:
A Wheeling man died Saturday after suffering carbon monoxide intoxication while working on his motorcycle inside his garage. David Molitor, 53, was pronounced dead at 11:30 a.m., the Cook County medical examiner's office said. Molitor was repairing the bike with the motor running and the garage door down, officials said. A friend who had been trying to reach him went to the home, opened the garage door and found Molitor. An autopsy determined he died of carbon monoxide intoxication and inhalation of motorcycle exhaust. The death was ruled an accident.

PROPRIETOR CHICAGO HOUSE - 1944
EMPLOYED - BOWMAN DAIRY COMPANY
OWNER OF DAM INN 1941-1944
(MILWAUKEE AVENUE AND HINTZ ROAD)

Who's who in Wheeling

Look County Herald March 17, 1950

Arthur Moller, friendly proprietor of the Chicago House, has come a long way from working in the steel mills as a young boy to the successful businessman he is today.

He was born April 15, 1890, in Orebro, Sweden, which is about 150 miles from Stockholm. There he was employed in the steel mills until he was 19 when he worked his way to England and then to America.

When he landed in New York, life must have seemed very confusing as Art could speak no English. When he was asked where he wanted to go he said Chicago because that was the only other place in America he'd ever heard of!

Arriving in Chicago, friendless and handicapped by not being able to speak English, he secured a job with the Bowman Dairy Company. He held this job for the next 17 years. Having worked for a dairy and also having owned several taverns, Mr. Moller laughingly says that he's been in the liquid business most of his life.

During the next years he attended night classes at Carl Shurz high school in Chicago and learned to speak English.

He also met Tessie Lux at a picnic at Riverview Park. She became Mrs. Moller in October of 1917. They had two sons and a daughter, Grace.

After prohibition Mr. Moller opened the Irving Inn at 5835 Irving Park, Chicago. He sold this business in May of 1941 when he came to Wheeling and operated the Dam Inn at the corner of Milwaukee ave. and Hintz rd. In 1944 he moved to the Chicago House where he is living now.

Mrs. Moller passed away May 21, 1948. Art and his daughter, Grace, lived alone at the Chicago House until last December 3 when Grace became the bride of Arthur "Bud" Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller of Wheeling. The couple now lives in a lovely upstairs apartment with Mr. Moller and Bud assists in the business.

Art enjoys owning the Chicago House, which is one of the oldest establishments in Wheeling, and being a Wheeling businessman. Since he has owned the Chicago House it has earned the reputation of being a place of friendship and enjoyment. He is also an active member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Businessmen's association.

Art is now recovering from a recent operation at St. Francis hospital in Evanston where he was seriously ill for several weeks.

10-year-old Wheeling girl died from injuries in 5-car accident

A 10-year-old Wheeling girl was killed Sunday when the car in which she was a passenger was struck from behind at an intersection in Mount Prospect.

Kelly Mroz, of the 200 block of Mayer Avenue, was pronounced dead at Northwest Community Hospital in Arlington Heights, at 2:50 p.m.

Mount Prospect police said Mroz was a passenger in her father's 1987 Chevrolet as it was traveling west on Golf Road.

At the intersection with Lancaster, Mroz's car was hit from behind by a car driven by Jennie Biegler, 30, of Mount Prospect.

Before the accident was over, Mroz's car was hit again by another car. Five cars were involved in the collisions, Mount Prospect crime prevention Officer William Roscop

Kelly Mroz's father, Bruce, was also taken to Northwest Community Hospital for treatment. Bruce and Kelly were wearing seat belts when the accident occurred.

Biegler was ticketed for following too close to the Mroz's car, Roscop, who added that the accident is still under investigation.

Last week, a 15-month-old Buffalo Grove girl was killed when her family van accidentally rolled over her.

Heather Gilbert, of 912 Hill Lane, was pronounced dead Thursday at Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge after emergency workers attempted to revive her.

The accident occurred while the family was unloading luggage from the Toyota van after returning from a vacation in Arizona, said Buffalo Grove Police Cmdr. Gary Del Re.

Eleanor attended Trumbull Elementary School and Senn, Lucy Flowers and Schurz High Schools in Chicago. After graduating from Schurz in 1930, she became an apprentice dressmaker. In 1934, Eleanor got a job as an upholsterer and joined the Women's Furniture Workers' Union, Local 112 which began her lifelong affiliation with the labor union movement. Local 112 later merged into the Upholster's Union, Local 18. She was a life member of Service Employees' Union Local 73. She was a delegate for the Women's Trade Union League, secretary of the Union Label League, and active in the Chicago and the Illinois Federations of Labor. Beginning in 1945, she served as a delegate at 37 consecutive AFL-CIO conventions. She also served as secretary of the Chicago Union Label and Service Trades Council from 1945 to 1970. Eleanor always adhered to the policy of "Buy American" and examined all purchases to "Look for the Union Label."

After passing one of the first Civil Service ex-

Eleanor M. Mueller

of Wheeling 1-14-04

Eleanor M. Mueller, age 91, of Wheeling, formerly of Chicago, died peacefully Sunday, Jan. 11, 2004, at her home. Born Dec. 4, 1912, the beloved daughter of the late George and Ella (nee Seilheimer) Mueller; loving sister of the late May (Charles) Boness and the late Dorothy (Walter) Chapman; devoted aunt of Charlotte (Myrt) Ashbacher, Nancy Nasser, the late Sue (William) Thomas, Bonnie (Rev. Gerald) Switzer, William (Linda) Boness, Sally Kopke, James Boness, Robert (Ruth) Boness, Judy (Jack) Wilson, David (Karen) Chapman, Bruce (Laura) Chapman, Leslie (Valerie) Chapman, Pamela (Robert) Reidlen, Paul Chapman and many grand nieces and nephews.

Eleanor attended Trumbull Elementary School and Senn, Lucy Flowers and Schurz High Schools in Chicago. After graduating from Schurz in 1930, she became an apprentice dressmaker. In 1934, Eleanor got a job as an upholstery sewer and joined the Women's Furniture Workers' Union, Local 112 which began her lifelong affiliation with the labor union movement. Local 112 later merged into the Upholster's Union, Local 18. She was a life member of Service Employees' Union Local 73. She was a delegate for the Women's Trade Union League, secretary of the Union Label League, and active in the Chicago and the Illinois Federations of Labor. Beginning in 1945, she served as a delegate at 37 consecutive AFL-CIO conventions. She also served as secretary of the Chicago Union Label and Service Trades Council from 1945 to 1970. Eleanor always adhered to the policy of "Buy American" and examined all purchases to "Look for the Union Label."

After passing one of the first Civil Service examinations held by the City of Chicago, Eleanor began working at the Cook County Department of Welfare, first in the medical division and then in the cashier's office. In 1951 she joined the Chicago Board of Education's Division of Health Services, which at the time was developing its in-school nurses program. In 1968 she transferred to the Division of Employee Benefits. She served on the executive board and as secretary of the Chicago Municipal Employees' Society from 1955 until her retirement in 1978.

Eleanor had been a member in good standing of the Logan-Avon Dale Ladies Auxiliary VFW since June 1936. She was a member of Unity Lutheran Church in Chicago from 1927 until 1983 where she served on the Altar Guild, making altar cloths by hand. She also served the church as financial secretary.

After retiring, Eleanor moved to Wheeling and became active at the Pavilion Senior Citizen's Center and in the Forever Young Group at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd. She had many interests and talents, including knitting, crocheting, cooking and baking. Her handmade afghans and Christmas stockings are keepsakes that are cherished by her family and friends. She was also very pleased when she heard people comment that her baked goods looked like they could be pictured in a cookbook. She traveled extensively in the United States, Europe and Scandinavia.

Visitation will be today, from 2 to 9 p.m. at Kolssak Funeral Home, 189 S. Milwaukee Ave. (two blocks south of Dundee Road), Wheeling. The funeral service will be Thursday, in state from 10:30 a.m. until the time of the service at 11:30 a.m. at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, 1111 N. Elmhurst Road, Prospect Heights, IL 60070.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd.

Friends may visit www.dailyherald.com/obits to express condolences and sign the guest book. For funeral information, (847) 537-6600.

Celebrating the Life of Cecilia M. Murphy

Posted on October 10, 2013 by Jon Kolssak

Cecilia M. Murphy

October 9, 1912 – September 26, 2013

Cele Murphy (nee Stremich) entered heaven on September 26th just days shy of 101 years of age. Born in Nekoma, North Dakota, her long life took her to New York City where she met her husband Chester. After a brief career on Wall Street, her life was interrupted by World War II and Chester's service to our country. Upon his return, they moved to New Jersey and raised their family – Maureen (Tirone) and Chet.

Cele was a long standing and active member of St. Mary' Church in Nutley New Jersey. Among her many endeavors, her life was rich with volunteer work. Cele was the oldest member of St. Mary's Catholic Daughters of America; she helped found the St. Mary's school library. In 1991, Cele moved to Pittsburgh to be near her family including her four grandchildren; Jessica (Doyle) Adam Murphy, Owen Murphy, and Zachary Tirone.

In 1998 Cele's life took her to the greater Chicago area where she lived for fifteen years. She resided at Addolorata Villa in Wheeling IL until her death in September. As a long term resident of the Villa, she continued her active involvement in "Life at the Villa" and made many friends. Cele became a great grandmother to two beautiful children; Julian and Teagan Murphy.

Cele is survived by daughter Maureen (Tirone) Carmine Tirone (son-in-law), son Chester, Carol (daughter-in-law) Jessica (Doyle) only grand-daughter and grandsons Adam and Owen, and Zachary (Tirone).

Cele touched more lives than can be counted in her one hundred plus years. Her legacy will live on through her inspiration to others. Her everlasting smile and happy demeanor were contagious.

A mass of Christian burial was celebrated at Addolorata Villa on October 1, 2013 and interment was at Assumption Cemetery, New Egypt New Jersey.

*Forever in our hearts – a wife, a mom, a grandmother, a great grandmother, a friend and always a Lady.
May she rest in Peace.*

This father's labors now are o'er.
 His earthly labor is done;
 And now he rests in peaceful sleep.
 His just rewards are won.
 His wife must shed a silent tear.
 His children, too, must mourn:

And they know that they will meet him,
 When eternal life is born.
 The silent tears that each must shed,
 Like rain upon the ground,
 Will nourish all their love for him,
 Which did in life abound.

God saw you getting weary,
He did what He thought best:
He put His arms around you
And said, "Come and rest."
He opened up His golden gates
On that heartbreaking day,
And with His arms around you
You gently slipped away.
It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone;
A part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Mrs. Mykytiuk, one of the mothers at the Crane Fund for widows and children, passed away suddenly on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Mykytiuk had undergone an apparently successful operation for varicose veins about two weeks ago. Upon recommendations by the hospital authorities, she was being taken to her home, when suddenly she collapsed in the car and before medical aid could be summoned was gone. A blood clot reaching the heart was determined as the cause of the demise by physicians. She leaves a much alone and saddened family of eight children between the ages of 2 to 14 years. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon and interment made in Wheeling cemetery.
