Joan T. Zimmermann
of Arlington Heights

A Funeral Mass for

Joan T. Zimmermann (nee Leary), 68, will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Thursday at St. Raymond Church, 11544 North Road (North of Lincoln St., between Prospect, where there will be a Mass from 9 a.m. until the time of service.

Born Oct. 16, 1935, in Evanston, she died Sunday, Aug. 8, 2004, at her home. Entombment will be in All Saints Mausoleum.

Joan was a woman of great talents, musically, professionally and personally. She was modest about her achievements and her list of accomplishments was always for Chuck, her husband of 44 years. They supported each other in every aspect of their lives. During her illness, Chuck was her caregiver and sustainer.

Joan was gifted with a beautiful, trained singing voice. She loved to sing and shared her gift at weddings and many social events. She enjoyed opera, ballads, the symphony, and just listening to music. She liked to sing in church. It was a pleasure to sing next to her because her voice offset the false notes others were likely to sing.

Joan was a faithful daughter who, with Chuck, tended to her father until he reached an advanced age. After working all week, she and Chuck would spend every Saturday cleaning his house, doing his laundry and bringing him comfort.

She was a valuable employee who became an outstanding executive. For 41 years she worked for the Don Roth Restaurant Corp. She started out as a secretary when the corporation included six restaurants. When the owner, Don Roth, became ill, all but one of the restaurants was sold. Joan remained the person in charge of running the corporation for the Roth family. She stayed at her post with Chuck's help until two weeks ago, when her health prevented her from going to work.

Joan was a loyal friend who remembered every birthday and anniversary and always did the thoughtful thing. She took an interest in everyone's family and followed their lives with care, down to the great grandchildren. Her many friends, who have become like family to her, can attest to her loyalty and caring.

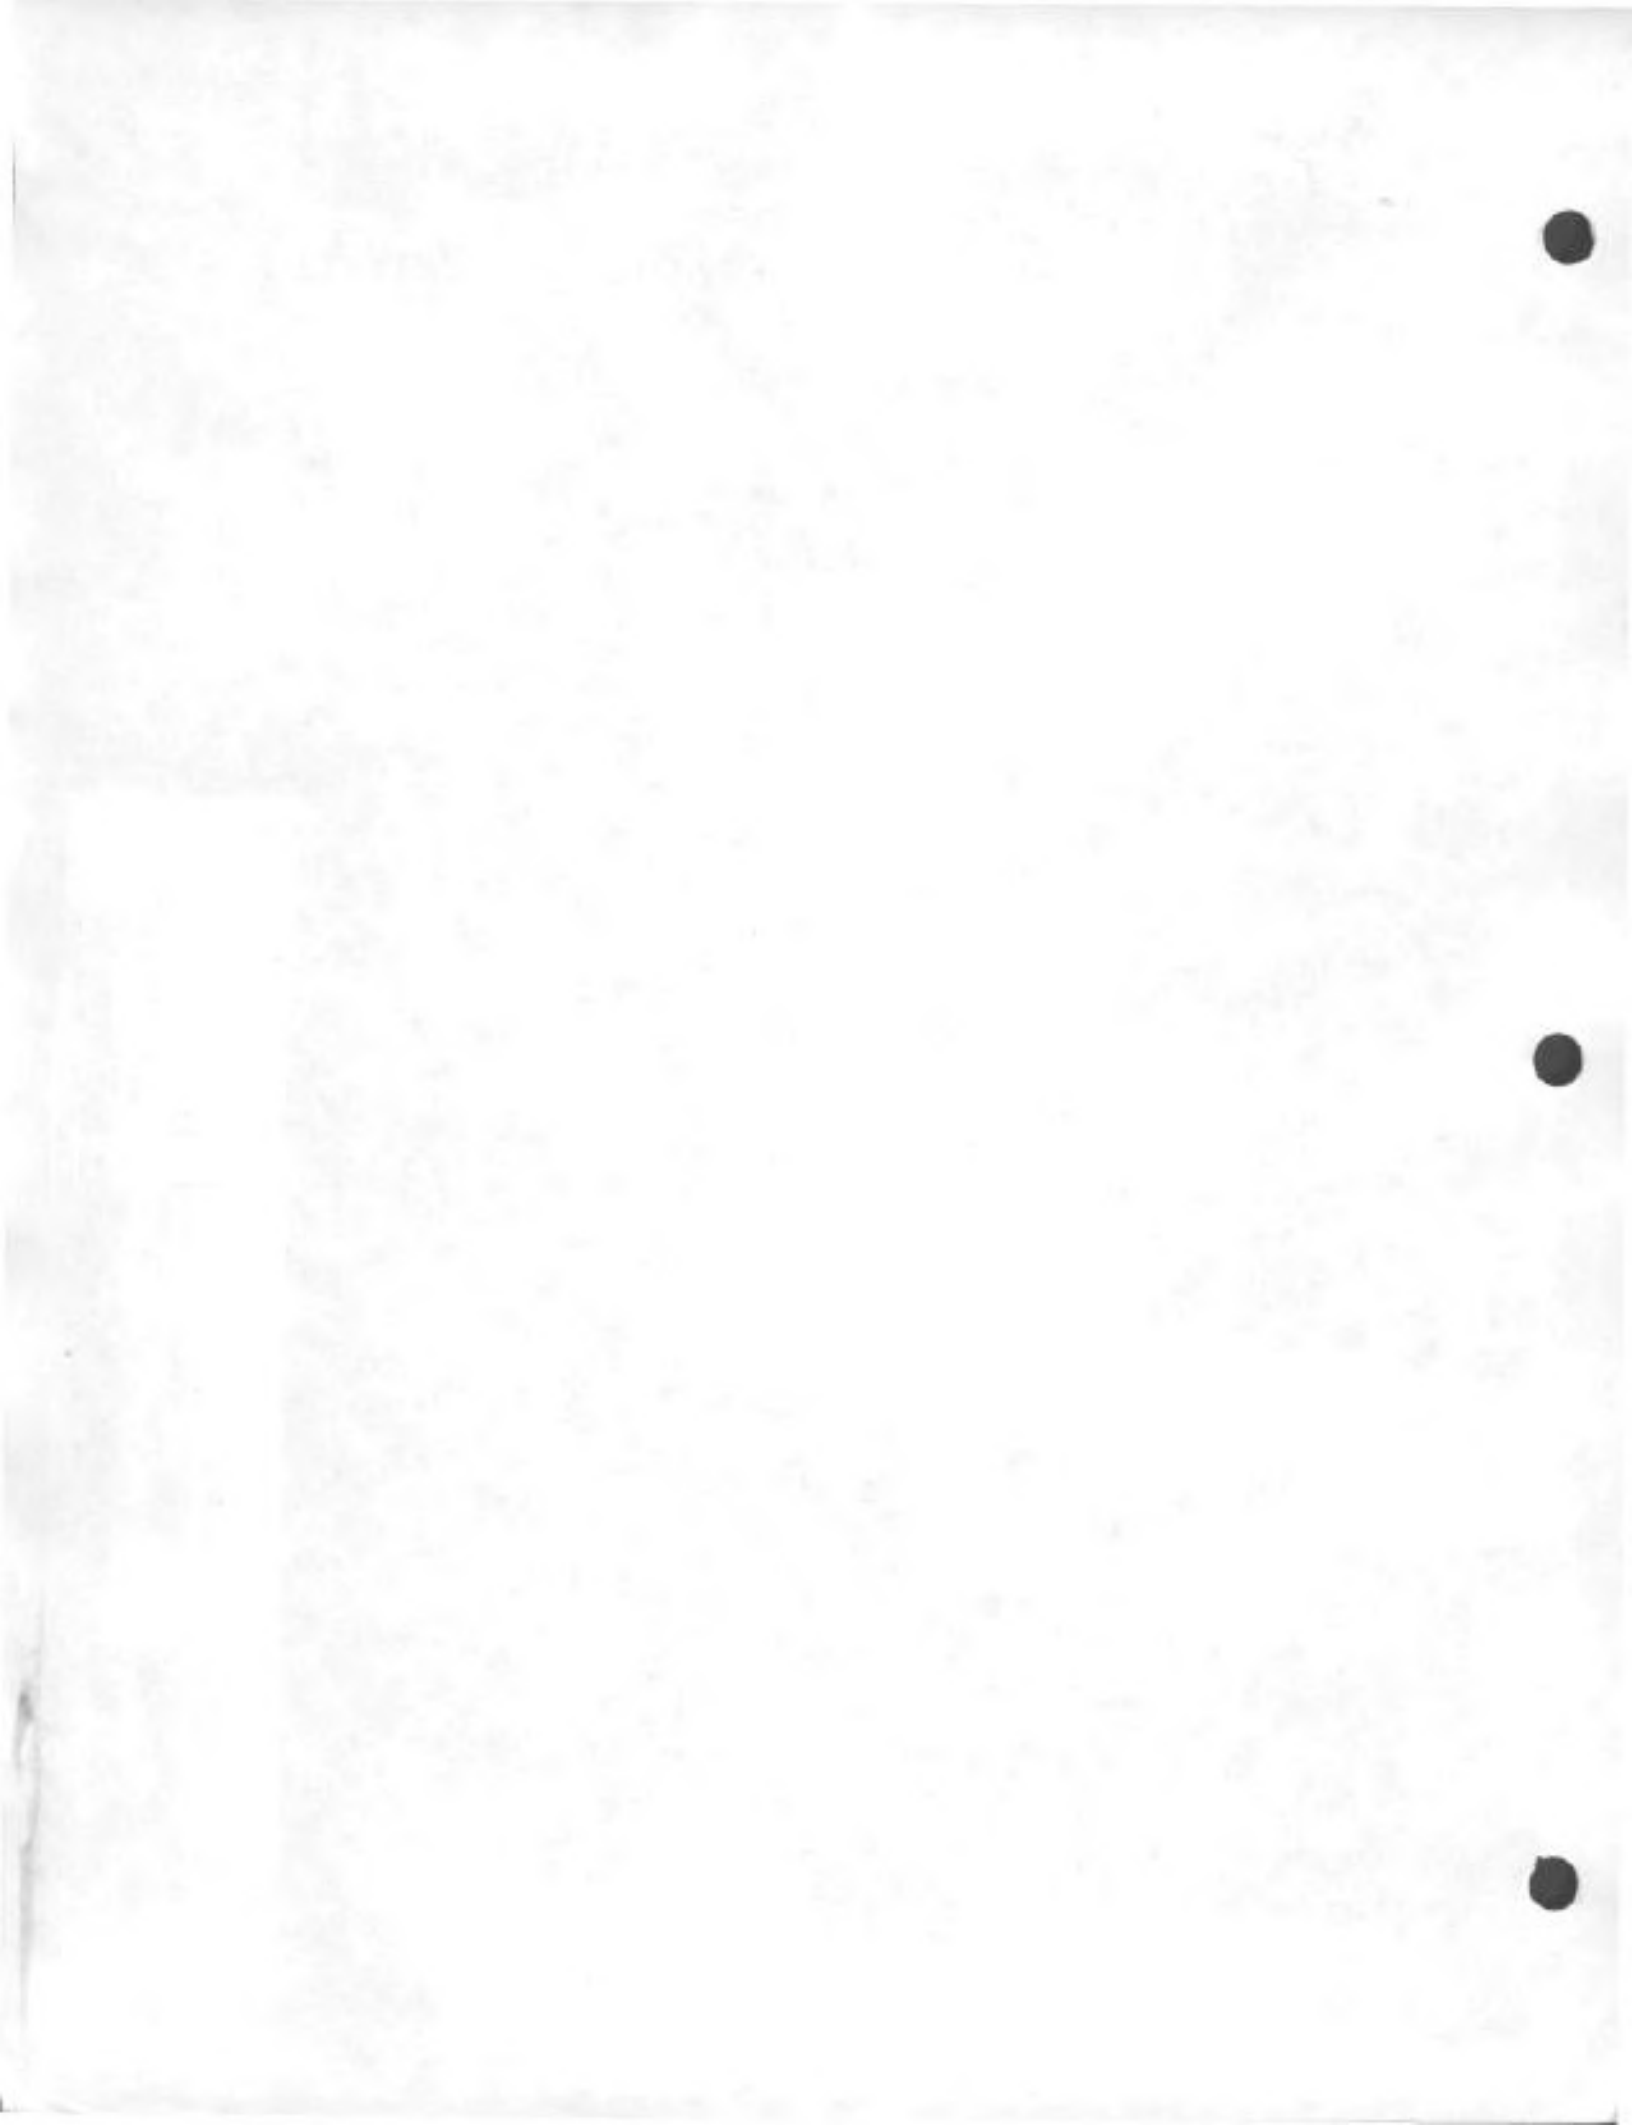

Joan and Chuck were frequent travelers. They visited Alaska, Mexico, Europe behind the Iron Curtain, India and Turkey, but their favorite destination was Hawaii. They made 15 visits to Hawaii where they were able to relax and enjoy. They had plans for yet another visit this spring when Joan's medical treatments prevented them from going.

Chuck and Joan renewed their vows on their 30th anniversary at St. Raymond's Church. Every Sunday they could be found together at the 6 o'clock Mass. Their abiding faith sustained them as they faced the ravages of her illness together.

Joan never stopped looking forward, not did Chuck. Even when faced with difficult odds, they kept a positive attitude and stated that they could cope with whatever faced them. They possessed an awesome unity.

In addition to her beloved husband, Charles Zimmermann, Joan is survived by many friends, including Marco and Mike Malone, Mary Schatz, her friend since childhood, the Bonaguis, the Roths, the Sheehys, the Wisniewskis and others.

Visitation will be from 3 to 9 p.m. today at Friedrich Funeral Home, 120 W. Central Road

May 31, 2012

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when life is done. Amen
