A Fisherman's Prayer

God grant that I may fish

Until my dying day,

And when it comes to

My last cast

I then most humbly pray,

When in the Lord's

Soft landing net

I'm peacefully asleep.

That in His mercy I be judged

As good enough to keep.

Mourners remember worker killed in tollway crash

Friends and family leave the Shrine of Our Lady of Pompeii in Chicago's Little Italy neighborhood Tuesday after a funeral for Illinois Tollway worker Vincent Petrella.

Petrella, 39, was killed Jan. 27 after stopping on the side of Interstate 88 near Aurora to help the driver of a stalled truck. An Illinois state trooper had also stopped on the side of the highway when another truck rammed all three stopped vehicles, killing Petrella and leaving the trooper critically injured.

Petrella is survived by a wife and two children. The driver of the truck that hit the other vehicles faces felony charges alleging he drove beyond the allowable number of hours.

Petrella, of Wheeling, grew up in the Little Italy area of the city.

Subj: Deans of Wheeling
Date: 3/19/2005 8:35:55 AM Central Standard Time
From: Landberg66@msn.com (James Landberg)
To: ARCHLLR@aol.com (Linda Reading)

Dear Linda:

I was archiving old emails and read again your email to me of 1/31/04, over a year ago, regarding the Deans, Lansings etc. of Wheeling.

I read about your illness in the Historical Society newsletter and hope that you are all recovered. It appears to be so from mention of your HS activities in recent newsletters.

Anyway, what I wanted to tell you, for your files, is that I learned that John Dean of Wheeling did not die there but rather moved to St. Paul sometime between 1860 and 1870. He and his wife appear in the St. Paul census the latter year.

Seems he had a daughter named Elizabeth who married a fellow named Amasa Thompson from McHenry County, an artist and photographer, and they moved to St. Paul. Perhaps they all went together.

Elizabeth later worked in the St. Paul City and County Hospital and she and her father John Dean were enumerated at the hospital in the 1880 federal census. He was almost 90 years old by then and I assume he died not long after.

So, maybe they never used the burial plot in his name in Wheeling, although more likely there are some children buried there.

Please put this in your Dean file, if you have one, in case anyone ever comes researching the Deans. Maybe someone will be interested in Dean's addition there in Wheeling, which I would like to know more about if such occasion should arise.

Also put it in James Parker's file. I'm pretty sure that James Parker's wife Mary was John Dean's daughter.

Hope all is well at the Wheeling HS. Keep up the good work. Regards, Jim Landberg

Linda L. Reading
Wheeling Historical Society
Connie Gervaise
Wheeling Village Office

Dear Ms. Reading:

Thank you for your email of August 26, 1999, copied below.

James Parker was indeed my great great grandfather. I found him listed in the 1850 Federal Census for Wheeling Township. It says he was a farmer and innkeeper and was born in New York. It also listed his family as follows:

Mary, his wife, age 35, born in Vermont
Francis, age 14, born in NY
H.(or possibly W. or T.) D., age 8, born in NY
Charles, age 6, born in NY
Edna, age 4, born in Illinois.

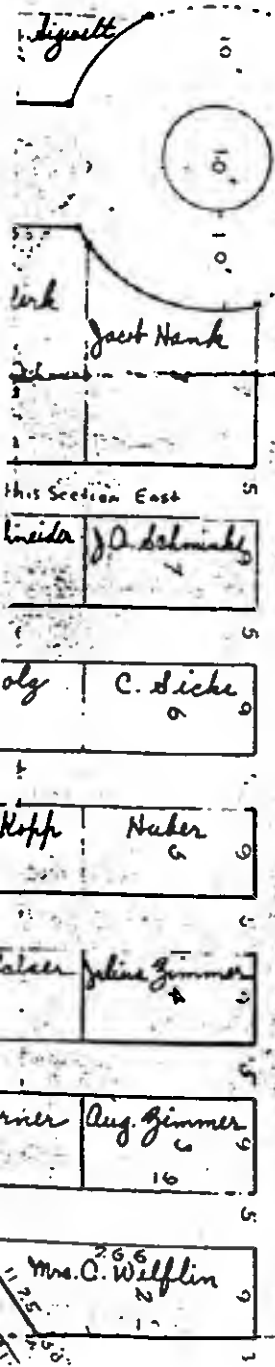

Several other people are also listed, who probably worked and lived at the hotel.

Francis, as I indicate in my earlier message, married my great grandfather, Gates Asa Johnson, there in Wheeling in October 1856. Mary, the mother and Edna her sister later came to live with them in St. Paul, MN. My grandfather was named James Parker Johnson and my mother's first name was Edna.

So, the information you sent was invaluable. I would greatly appreciate anything further you might discover about the Parker family and/or the Parker hotel. If Wheeling Township's first organizational meeting was held there, perhaps there are some township records that would provide more detail. Particularly valuable would be anything on where in New York the family came from. I also will contact the Township about this.

Connie Gervaise at the Village Office also was very helpful. She found out that there are several Parkers buried in the Township cemetery, but the names don't match. Of course, they could be from a later generation. Or perhaps other members of the Parker family moved to Wheeling.

Thanks again for your assistance, James S. Landberg, Washington D.C.

Dear Linda:

Thank you for sending me the abstract of title pertaining to the Parkers of Wheeling and other families. It has a lot of interesting and useful information. Among other things, proves the Parkers were in Wheeling by 1842. Also confirms the information in my great grandfather G.A. Johnson's diaries that he sold the Parker properties to Francis S. Kopp.

Looks like I probably will visit Chicago again in early October and want to do some more research on the Parkers.

It probably won't surprise you that I have a lot of questions and a few observations about the abstract.

First are the transactions involving Jacob D. Lansing (1842 sale to James Parker) and Cornelius Lansing (1843 deed). I think I did not mention previously that the 1850 federal census shows a Mary Lansing, age 26, and child Estell, age 3, living in the Parker household. Pretty obviously she was related to the Lansings in some way. Is there any more information on any of them? I found the following in Chicago City Directories:

1844 Directory

Lansing, Cornelius. Dry goods and groceries, Clark St., H(ouse) Michigan Ave.
" , Samuel Clerk at above store Same Address

I also found the following in a Chicago Genealogical Society Data Base Chicago Newspaper Index.

LANSING	B.	Kent Co., Mich.	Principal Hotel Arrivals	69	1846
LANSING	C. S.	Chicago	Death	06	1843
LANSING	E.	Wheeling	Principal Hotel Arrivals	75	1846
LANSING	H.	N. Y.	Principal Hotel Arrivals	71	1846
LANSING	M.	Wheeling, Ill.	Principal Hotel Arrivals	58	1846
LANSING	Mr.	Wheeling	Principal Hotel Arrivals	60	1846
LANSING	R. W.	W. T.	Principal Hotel Arrivals	73	1846
LANSING	Rev.	Auburn, N. Y.	Marriage	15	1846
LANSING	Samuel B.	Chicago	Death	06	1843

Note the 1843 deaths of C.S. (Cornelius?) and Samuel B. Lansing and the 1846 hotel arrivals in Wheeling. Who were the people that arrived in Wheeling?

I found no references to Wheeling in the data base listings for Parker or Morrison.

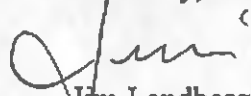

Second, it appears there was some dispute over property. The last page you sent contains a note that says: "August 31, 1858, Mary G. Parker, Francis M. Parker (my great and great great grandmothers) and Edna E. Parker by John Dean, Her next friend (?), filed their bill in chancery in the Cook country Court of Common Pleas (Case 19008) against Clarisa Filkins, Elizabeth A. Runyon, Edward V. Filkins and Israel L. Runyon, said bill affecting the premises described in the deed from John Dean and wife to Joseph Filkins above noted."

Is there some place where they would have the chancery court record?

Third pertains to the references to John Dean. I see from your newsletter that Judy Dean left information on M. Dean who was a highway commissioner in 1860 in Wheeling. Must be the same Dean family. Is any of this information relevant to the Parkers?

If you have time, please send me your thoughts on these questions. It would help me prepare for the upcoming trip to Chicago.

Sincerely,

Jim Landberg

Weep Not

Do not cry for me, when I am gone, I've lived my life, I've sung my song. Known tears and laughter, sun and rain, a life that brought more joy than pain. I've been content with love so deep, that peacefully, I'll ever sleep. A love we shared with joy untold, and kept me young, though I grew old. I've held my loved ones in my arms and felt the thrill of their sweet charms. Had many friends and family too, that smoothed the way as I passed through. Do not cry for me, when life is done, for I have been the richest one. I will go home, content to see Christ who gave it all to me.

In tears we saw you sinking
We watched you fade away,
You suffered much in silence,
You fought so hard to stay
You faced your tasks with courage
You felt your hope descend,
But you kept on fighting
Until the very end.
God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come with Me."
So when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful, free from pain,
We could not wish you back,
To suffer that again

CLEMENS F. PERIOLAT DEAD OF PNEUMONIA

Pioneer Chicagoan, Long
Known as Furrier, Succumbs to Neglected Cold.

BY JUNE PROVINES.

Clemens F. Periolat, one of the rapidly diminishing list of pioneers, who saw the progress of Chicago from a tiny village sunk in the prairie mud to its present standing as the third largest city in the world, died this morning at the James C. King Home for Aged Men, where he had made his abode for the last few years. He had been ill for three days with pneumonia, from which his advanced age and weakened heart made recovery impossible.

Mr. Periolat, who was a fur dealer longer than most of Chicago's other citizens can remember, the first Pullman conductor and the city's first fruit dealer, had been at his office, 108 North State street, at 8:30 a. m. for years up to and including Saturday morning. It was learned yesterday by office employes that he had pneumonia, resulting from a cold he ignored, refusing all treatment.

Mr. Periolat was possessed of a remarkable memory, and, without reference to notes, was able to tell an entertaining and remarkably accurate history of Chicago, illustrated with intimate glimpses of men whose names are nearly as well known as the name of the city itself. James S. Kirk, stirring his own soap, with the perspiration running down his preoccupied face; the first Potter Palmer, with a load of carpet on his back, delivering it to a customer; William Pullman, cabinetmaker, planning the first sleeping car at the order of his brother, George—these are some of the recollections that personalized Mr. Periolat's narrative of Chicago's growth.

Went Back to Epic '40s.

He remembered clearly the determined, "grit-showing" era in Chicago's progress, the '40s. They were, according to Mr. Periolat, the years when Chicago, despondent from the financial crash of 1837, despaired of seeing the city assume a position of financial importance and doggedly set to work to improve homes and to educate children.

He recalled the days when the area at the western edge of the loop, now the wholesale-house district, was filled with ramshackle shanties and overrun with chickens and geese—when no woman who valued her reputation would have been seen on State street, and when Wabash avenue was the smart residential street. He spoke fondly of Rice's theater, and the actors and actresses that were the toast of an early day.

Wheeling man remembered for work, devotion family

By Deborah Donovan

Vincent Petrella, the tollway worker from Wheeling killed Monday night while helping a stranded driver, was a hero, Gov. Pat Quinn said.

But to a friend who grew up with Petrella in Chicago's Little Italy neighborhood on the Near West Side, he was always a hero.

"He was a hero just for the way he was with his family," Paul Capuano said. "He was a man's man who put family before anything else. That's what a man's man is to me."

Petrella, a 39-year-old maintenance worker, was helping a disabled semitrailer truck about 9:45 p.m. that was straddling the right lane and shoulder of eastbound I-88 near Eola Road in Aurora when another semitrailer truck rear-ended state trooper Douglas J. Balder's squad car, state police spokeswoman Monique Bond said.

Petrella was killed and Balder was seriously injured.

Renato V. Velasquez, 46, of Hanover Park, the driver of the other truck, is facing felony charges in the crash, including operating a commercial motor vehicle while fatigued or impaired, driving beyond the 14-hour rule and the 11-hour rule, and false report of record and duty status. He's also charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident, and failure to yield to stationary emergency vehicles. Velasquez was being taken to DuPage County jail to await his bond hearing Wednesday morning, Bond said.

On Tuesday, Balder, of Oswego, was in critical but stable condition at Loyola University Medical Center in Maywood, Bond said.

Petrella's sister, Maria Petrella of Chicago, called her brother a "good person, hard working and a loving father and husband." He and his wife, Sandra, had two children, she said.

The boys who attended Our Lady of Pompeii elementary school with Petrella and rode their bikes to the lakefront and the trains downtown to see movies nicknamed him "Baker." That's because his name is really Vincenzo, and he went by Enzo, Capuano said.

"A character in the 'Godfather' movie was called Enzo the baker, so ever since we were 8 or 9 we called him 'Baker.'"

Besides devotion to his parents, who still live in the Taylor Street area, and later his wife, Sandra, and their children, Petrella was known for his work ethic.

He ran valet tickets at Tufano's restaurant when he was 13, said Capuano, then parked the cars there when he was old enough. Capuano, who still lives in the Chicago neighborhood, is a bartender there now.

"He was a very humorous guy, and he would make everybody laugh," Capuano said. "He was a real character and a guy you always wanted to be around. He didn't have a mean bone in his body."

Petrella was proud to be Italian American, and spoke Italian fluently, said his friend.

Quinn ordered Illinois flags to be flown at half-staff Tuesday in honor of Petrella.

"Vincent Petrella is a hero," he said in a statement. "Both he and the injured State Trooper were doing heroic work — assisting their fellow citizens in an emergency. Both men were committed to keeping our roads safe and to helping those in need."

"Vincent was a selfless man, dedicated to his family and his job. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family, friends and fellow employees during this difficult time."

Petrella had been an equipment operator laborer for the tollway since 2005 after starting his career as a toll collector in 2001, according to Tollway Executive Director Kristi Lafleur, who expressed sympathy to his family and friends.

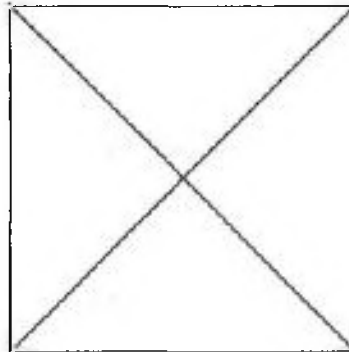

"On behalf of the Tollway Board and the entire Illinois Tollway, we are deeply saddened by the tragic loss of one of our own, Illinois Tollway roadway maintenance worker Vincent Petrella," she said in a statement. "Our roadway maintenance workers are on our roadways 24/7 to serve customers across our 286-mile system of tollways. They plow snow, maintain our roadways and, most importantly, are the first on the scene to help drivers in need. It was during what should have been a routine job that things went horribly wrong."

State Police Director Hiram Grau spoke for his department: "On behalf of the men and women of the Illinois State Police, I offer condolences to Vincent Petrella's family and to the entire Illinois Tollway."

The University Village Association, a development group in the Little Italy neighborhood, also issued a statement mourning Petrella's death.

"His zeal for his job with the Illinois Tollway was surpassed only by his love for his wife and two children," the group said.

Two federal agencies join probe of fatal I-88 crash

Whether truck companies are following regulations questioned

By Robert Sanchez

Two federal agencies have launched a joint investigation into the crash that killed Wheeling tollway worker Vincent Petrella and seriously injured a state trooper along I-88 in Aurora.

The probe by the National Transportation Safety Board and the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration was announced Thursday after U.S. Sen. Dick Durbin called for an investigation. Both agencies said they started gathering information earlier in the week.

Petrella and Trooper Douglas J. Balder of Oswego were helping with a disabled semitrailer truck along eastbound I-88 near Eola Road when their vehicles were struck by a truck driven by Renato V. Velasquez of Hanover Park.

Prosecutors say Velasquez had slept for only 3½ hours during a 37½-hour shift in which he traveled through Illinois, Nebraska and Iowa before returning to the Chicago area. When the crash occurred about 9:30 p.m. Monday, both Balder and Petrella were sitting inside their parked vehicles, which had flashing emergency lights.

Balder's wife, Kim, on Thursday issued a statement expressing her gratitude for "the outpouring of support, care and genuine concern" that her family has received.

"My husband is fighting for his life, and I know that there are few words that can comfort the grief of the Petrella family's loss," Kim Balder said. "Please know that your family has the sympathy and support from all of us, and may God embrace Vincent's soul."

State and local authorities, meanwhile, are conducting a criminal investigation into the deadly crash.

Velasquez, 46, faces felony charges including operating a commercial motor vehicle while fatigued or impaired, violating a rule that forbids more than 11 hours of driving in a 14-hour shift, and making a false report of record and duty status.

In a letter to FMCSA Administrator Anne S. Ferro, Durbin asked the agency to determine if Velasquez's employer, Naperville-based DND International Inc., broke trucking rules by letting him be on the road too long.

Durbin also wants steps taken to ensure every trucking company is complying with federal regulations limiting the number of hours drivers can be on the road.

"We establish the standards for how long truck drivers can be on the road," he said. "We require trucking companies and others to keep records so that we can verify the logs of the drivers against the requirements of federal law."

PRINCIPAL OF MARY SEAT OF WISDOM

GOLDEN APPLE WINNER

School mourns Principal Cynthia Petzel

By JENNIFER JOHNSON | STAFF WRITER
jjohnson@pioneerlocal.com

Brightly colored paper flowers, cut and glued by students, lined the entrance to Mary, Seat of Wisdom Church as the school and community said their good-byes to Principal Cynthia Petzel.

The Wheeling resident, 49, died May 25 after undergoing surgery for a double knee replacement. She had been principal at Mary, Seat of Wisdom

Cynthia Jean Petzel

School in Park Ridge for nearly 18 years.

"She was truly dedicated to the children of Mary, Seat of Wisdom and she helped instill in each one of them a deep sense of faith. That was her legacy," said parent Janice Schoneman.

Throughout the funeral Mass, sentiments were shared about Miss Petzel's hardworking nature and dedication. Known as "Cindy" to her family and close friends, she was described as a spiritual guide, a mentor and a role model to her students. The school community was her second family, said the Rev. Ron Kalas, who presided over the Mass.

"Although she had no children of her own, she had hundreds of them over the 17 years she was at Mary, Seat of Wisdom," Kalas said.

Miss Petzel's brother, Tom Petzel, told of her love of the Chicago Cubs, childhood dreams of becoming a ballerina and the pride she had for each school year's eighth grade graduating class.

"When Cindy was named principal at Mary, Seat of Wisdom, she found her true calling," Tom Petzel said.

"I know my sister's life is complete because she affected so many children," said her brother David Petzel, who told of how his sister worked hard to promote Christian values and "guide, nurture and protect each student.

"Miss Petzel was no an ordinary principal; she reached out and touched students and their families," he said. "Just as Jesus is the Good Shepherd, Miss Petzel also guarded and protected her flock."

Miss Petzel's sister, Pam Lisack, spoke of Miss Petzel's love of Broadway musicals and

I know my sister's life is complete because she affected so many children."

David Petzel

reality TV shows. Her sister, she said, was a loyal friend and mentor, and an example of how to live life. "We were all blessed she touched our lives," Lisack said.

Miss Petzel taught at St. Peter's Catholic School in Skokie before coming to Mary, Seat of Wisdom as principal. Developing a strong, Catholic-based curriculum was one of her goals as an administrator, and she also taught a class on life skills for eighth-graders.

She was a Golden Apple Award winner, honored for excellence in education, and a member of several organizations, including the Archdiocesan Principal Association, the Archdiocesan National Catholic Education Association, the Archdiocesan Anti-Racism Committee, Vicariate in Education Research, the National Principal Elementary and Middle School Association, and the National Mathematical Association.

Assistant Principal Julie Due, who worked alongside Miss Petzel for 17 years, said the loss of her colleague is devastating.

"You walk into the building and there's an emptiness — there's a huge void within the school," she said. "She was an administrator who put so much heart in her work, and it was all about the students. ... Cindy was the type of person who wanted students to be educated on how to be a true Christian and to be the best person they could possibly be."

Students and staff held a private memorial service May 26. At the funeral Mass May 31, the eighth-grade class, dressed in their blue graduation gowns, served as an honor guard at the beginning and end. At one point during the Mass, the eighth-grade girls performed a "liturgical dance" to the song "Gentle Woman."

Prior to Miss Petzel's surgery, students wrote letters and poems for their principal, which were intended to be presented during her recovery. Instead, the writings have been taped to walls inside and outside the school building as final good-byes.

Miss Petzel is survived by her parents Mary (Joseph) Wrzepski; sister Pamela (Tom) Lisack; brothers Thomas (Carmela) and David (Cheryl); nieces and nephews Chris, Tom, Beth, Geoff, Andrew, Amy, Jacqueline and Stephanie; and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Cynthia J. Petzel Memorial Scholarship, 920 Granville Ave., Park Ridge IL 60068.

A father lies in peaceful sleep.
His wife sheds silent tears;
His children, too, are sad indeed.
Their hearts are filled with fears.
But he shall rise again when called,
And we will greet him where,
The days are never cloudy,
And there is no earthly care.
So let us dry our tear - stained eyes,
And look to God above;
Whose kindness in time of need,
Will replace our loss with love.

This father's labors now are o'er,
His earthly labor is done;
And now he rests in peaceful sleep,
His just rewards are won.
His wife must shed a silent tear,
His children, too, must mourn;
And they know that they will meet him,
When eternal life is born.
The silent tears that each must shed,
Like rain upon the ground,
Will nourish all their love for him,
Which did in life abound.

WALTER GEORGE PIEPER

Walter Pieper was born April 22, 1905 at Aptakisic, Ill. When a small boy, his family moved to Wheeling, where he had made his home since.

When his father decided to give up his work as village blacksmith, a number of years ago, Walter decided to carry on that work in a measure, enlarging it, however, to complete garage service, in which business he was engaged up to the time of his death. On the night of Feb. 18 he was called out with his tow truck and on returning to his garage noticed the truck was not functioning properly. He decided to correct the trouble and while working on it, the truck burst into flames. While removing the truck from the garage to save it from burning, he seriously burned his hands and arms. The first few days the burns seemed to be healing nicely, but later a poisoning received thru the burns invaded his system and he was relieved from his suffering Monday morning, Feb. 26, at the age of 28 years, 10 months and 4 days.

Having spent the most of his life in the village, Walter was closely associated in the affairs of the village. At the time of his death, he was a member of the board of trustees of the village. He was a member of the chamber of commerce, Vitruvius Lodge No. 81, A. F. & A. M. of which he was a Past Master, Wheeling Chapter O. E. S., and the Volunteer Fire Department which he had also served as chief.

Funeral services were held at the home and the Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon and interment made in Wheeling cemetery. The large attendance at the service and the many floral tributes gave evidence of the place he held in the community which was shocked by his early death.

Those who especially grieve at his passing, are his mother and father, his sisters, Miss Elsie Pieper and Mrs. John Keil, his brothers, Theodore, Gustave and Leo and many other relatives and friends.

HERMAN POHLMANN

Herman Pohlman, son of Wm. Pohlmann and his wife, Sophia Mackeben, was born at Mt. Prospect, Ill., March 25, 1887. He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith at Des Plaines, by Pastor Lewerenz, on April 8, 1900. On Nov. 4, 1911, he was married to Emilie Behrens at Elk Grove by Pastor L. J. C. Millies. The young couple made their home in Chicago for two years, thereupon moving to farms near Des Plaines, Waukegan and West Dundee road, respectively.

For the past thirteen years deceased lived with his family on the farm near Arlington Heights road, where on Tuesday, Feb. 22, his end came quite suddenly as a result of an ailment of longer duration. He reached the age of 50 years, 10 months, 27 days. The funeral service was held on Saturday at St. John church of which deceased was a voting member and the chairman of the congregation. The remaining members of the church council acted as honorary pallbearers. The church proved too small to accommodate all who came to pay a last tribute to a man who was held in high regard by them on account of his Christian conduct and helpfulness. Provision was made in the church basement and in the school auditorium so that all, however, could follow the entire service. Burial was in St. John's cemetery on West Lake avenue.

The deceased leaves to mourn his sudden departure his widow Emilie, three children Wilbert, Walter, Bernice, one daughter-in-law, Lois, one granddaughter, Judith, his aged mother, Sophia Pohlmann, seven brothers, five sisters, 15 brothers-in-law, 12 sisters-in-law and many other relatives and a large circle of friends.

Wheeling man killed in accident

A Wheeling man's anger at another driver may have contributed to his death on Oct. 6.

Cook County Sheriff's Police said James Poole, 47, of 137 Mockingbird Lane, was driving northbound on Schoenbeck Road with his wife Sharon as a passenger. They said he was cut off by another vehicle, and in anger pulled in front of that vehicle and stopped, forcing that driver to stop also.

Police said Poole exited his car and approached the vehicle behind him, calling for the driver to exit his car. driver would not get out of his car.

At that point, police said a car approached from the south struck Poole. He was thrown about 70 feet, and the car left the scene.

Poole's wife and the witness described the vehicle which hit Poole as a white cream-colored van or panel truck.

Poole was taken to Holy Family Hospital, Des Plaines and was pronounced dead on arrival.

DAVID PORT

David Port was born January 25, 1918. When less than a month old David and his twin sister, Deborah, were adopted into the home of Miss Elizabeth Port, then supt. of Crane Fund for Widows and Children, otherwise known as Childerley. When the twins were about 8 years old, their mother, Miss Port, was taken from them unexpectedly, following an operation. Until about two years ago the twins were cared for by Miss Elizabeth Corrin, their nurse in childhood. When failing health obliged her to leave the care of the family to younger hands, she took up her residence in the Scottish Home at Riverside. Since that time David and Deborah and their foster brother made their home with their married sister, Mrs. Virginia Haben in the Port residence at Childerley.

David graduated from Wheeling public school in the class of 1933. He had a year of high school at Deerfield Shields. David was an unassuming lad, deliberate in his ways and sincere in purpose. He was well liked among all his associates. His sudden death Monday, July 16, a victim of our mechanized age, makes us stop to consider whether much of what we call progress is really such, or whether there is a danger of the "mechanical robot" turning upon his Creator. It would seem that if mankind is to keep the upper hand, it will be necessary for him to develop those characteristics which seemed to be natural in David. Perhaps the best tribute his companions and society itself can pay to him will be to carry on in his ways.

Funeral services were held at the home on the Port Estate Thursday, July 19, his body was laid with that of his mother and grandmother, in Oakwood cemetery, 3 miles south of Wheeling.

The sincere sympathy of the entire community goes out especially to those closest to him, his twin Deborah, his sisters, Mrs. Virginia Haben and Miss Ann Port and his brother, Foster Port, also Miss Corrin, who knew him almost as a mother.

ELSABETH PORT, OF CHILDERLEY, DIES SUDDENLY

A shadow of sorrow crossed the path of many in Wheeling this week, when Miss Elisabeth Port succumbed at the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, Sunday morning following an operation on Saturday.

Funeral services were held at the home on Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Hopkins of a Chicago Episcopal church officiating, followed by interment in Oakwood cemetery, 3 miles south of Wheeling.

Miss Port, with her mother, came to Wheeling about fifteen years ago to assist in the establishment of the Crane colony for Widows and children now known as Childerley. Four years ago, when her mother because of physical disability, was forced to resign the superintendency of the Crane fund, Miss Port assumed full charge of that work. With an inexhaustible spirit of tolerance, born of a deep love for human kind, combined with executive ability, she proved most worthy of her position. Her great mother love prompted the adoption of five children, two of them still being in tender years. Her faith may be numbered among those rare souls, for whom denomination and creed held little appeal, because of the beautiful interpretation in their daily lives of the Christian virtues.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. E. V. Port and her five foster children, Mrs. Victor Haben, Ann Foster, David and Deborah Port. Besides her immediate family, a large circle of relatives and friends and many unto whom she ministered hold her memory sacred.

A Tribute

It would be difficult to think of anyone whose going from a community would be felt more deeply, than that of Miss Elisabeth Port.

Her work in the field of education was of unusual scope. She taught in the Chicago public schools; in two experimental schools of distinction, the University Laboratory School (under John Dewey) and the University of Chicago Elementary School; and finally, with her mother, organized and headed the Elisabeth Port School for Country Children under the Crane fund.

But the work of the Crane fund for widows and children is more than educational, and Miss Port not only was her mother's lieutenant in organizing and superintending the whole philanthropic venture but later, on her mother's retirement, became herself superintendent. This work is pioneer and unique, demanding freshness of thinking, wide knowledge of human nature, and at the same time personal devotion. All these Miss Port gave inexhaustibly, drawing her strength from a deep well of love and divine common sense. Whether in a great emergency, like that of the influenza epidemic of 1918, or in little details of daily adjustment,

CHICAGO

MISS ELSABETH PORT, LEADER IN EDUCATION, DIES

Miss Elisabeth Port, who was widely known in various phases of Chicago's educational life throughout her life, died yesterday morning at the Presbyterian hospital following an operation. She grew up in the public schools of the city and later taught in them.

After her training in the Chicago Free Kindergarten association under Anna Bryan she began teaching in the University of Chicago laboratory school with Dr. John Dewey. From there Miss Port came with Dr. Dewey's entire faculty staff to the University Elementary school.

Finally she went fifteen years ago to Wheeling, Ill., to establish and direct the Buffalo Creek farm for widows and children under the Crane fund. She remained at the farm until just before her death.

Besides her mother, Mrs. Elisabeth Z. Port, who has been identified with the schools of Chicago for thirty-five years, Miss Port is survived by five adopted children taken from the farm. Funeral arrangements had not been made last night.

Her influences and her ties extended far beyond the bounds of the immediate community in which she lived. She had a genius for friendship, and her friends were of the most various sorts, her marvelous understanding, sympathy acting as a sort of universal solvent. They leaned on her for counsel and for affection as they leaned on no other human being. And this power in her was felt even by those whose lives touched hers only infrequently. One of these wrote yesterday: "I feel that the whole world has lost a friend."

A TRIBUTE

Mrs. Elizabeth Port came to Wheeling about 19 years ago, a "pioneer" in the establishing of Crane Fund for widows and children, now known as Childerley, being its first superintendent and holding that position until sickness compelled her to "abandon the trail" about 8 years ago.

A true pioneer in spirit was she ever undaunted by new fields of conquest, led on by her faith in the One, who said "and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end."

Having been left a widow and a mother in early years, she carried on alone, in the teaching profession and mothering her child. A little later in life a family of five children, nieces and nephews, were left motherless and her mother-love took them in.

Her pioneer spirit extended to her profession and she became prominent in educational circles. Her wide experience in the educational world and her capacity for mother love, undoubtedly, led her to her last fields of labor which was Childerley. There she threw herself whole-heartedly into the task of making possible that "more abundant life" for those less fortunate.

fortunate.

Her influences were not bounded by the demands of her position, but extended to the community round about at every opportunity. She was a regular attendant and worker in the Wheeling church school until physically unable, and continued in the fellowship of the church even when greatly handicapped by the effects of an apoplectic stroke which she suffered 8 years ago.

All through the years of her physical suffering she maintained an active interest in her family, her community and the world, thereby proving an inspiration to her family and friends. Her spirit was released from the temple of the body which was worn and broken in service, on Tuesday evening, October 8. Funeral services were held in the home on Thursday afternoon, where many who loved and respected her had come to offer their last tributes. The body was laid to rest beside that of her daughter in Oakwoods cemetery, 3 miles south of Wheeling.

"Therefore let us also, seeing another of those we have loved has joined that great cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which does so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us."

AVIATION PIONEER
OWNER AND OPERATOR OF PALWAUKEE
AIRPORT IN WHEELING 1953-1986
GRADUATE OF ST. LUCY'S ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
AND CRANE TECHNICAL H.S. IN CHICAGO
MAN OF THE YEAR IN TRANSPORTATION-1973

Burial for George J. Priester, an aviation pioneer, will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Monday, at St. Raymond de Penafort Church, Route 83 (Emmurst Road) at Lincoln St., Mount Prospect. Interment will be in All Saints Catholic Cemetery, Des Plaines.

Vestation will be from 3 to 6 p.m. today, at the Oehler Funeral Home Des Plaines Chapel, 2099 Miner St., Des Plaines, and from 9 a.m. until the time of the Mass Monday, at the church.

Mr. Priester was the owner and operator of Palwaukee Airport in Wheeling from 1953 to 1986. Under his tenure, Palwaukee grew from five employees on 108 acres and four short gravel runways to 200 employees, 300 acres and five hard surface runways, and from 63 aircraft to more than 400, approximately 10 percent of which were jets. While it was the second busiest airport in Illinois during the '60s, '70s and '80s, Palwaukee was also the busiest privately owned airport in the world, according to FAA surveys.

George Priester was born on Jan. 31, 1908, in Chicago. He was educated at St. Lucy's Elementary School, Chicago, and Crane Technical High School. Following in his father's footsteps, Priester worked as a messenger boy during school vacations for the Chicago Northwestern Railroad and after 10 years as a train machinist and fireman, became an engineer, or "hoghead," in 1939.

His first airplane ride in 1928 came in exchange for looking at a friend's faltering airplane engine. Contrary to his father's advice, Priester continued to earn his private license and buy a Hess Warrior Argo, which he used to court his future wife, Veta Bedwell, while she lived on her family's farm in industry.

Priester's first step into the aviation business came in 1938, when he became an instrument instructor pilot for the War Training Service. After the war, he returned to the railroad while operating a school for instrument pilot training at Palwaukee, ultimately testing more than 700 pilots for Civil Aviation Administration licenses and more than 1000 pilots for its successor, the FAA.

In 1953, Priester purchased Palwaukee Airport outright. He retired from the Chicago Northwestern Railroad in 1955.

Over the next 30 years, Priester helped news organizations - flying newsmen John Cameron Swayze and his "Carnel Caravan Newsliner" around the nation, political campaigns - flying presidential candidates Ford and Carter, and businesses.

Along the way, Priester, who married Veta Bedwell in 1934, raised three children in the aviation business, including his son, Charles, who is Priester Aviation's chairman today. Daughters, Sheila and Sharon worked at the airport as children and young adults and earned private and commercial pilot's licenses. In 1973, with 20,000 flight hours under his belt, Priester earned his Learjet rating with son, Charles, as his instructor.

In 1986, with taxes and insurance costs making private ownership prohibitively expensive - and with many private airports nationwide being closed and redeveloped, Priester sold Palwaukee to the City of Prospect Heights and the Village of Wheeling. After the sale, Priester Aviation continued as a service provider offering fuel, aircraft storage, maintenance jet charter to the business community. The business' continued success is a tribute to George and Charles' vision.

A member of the Illinois Aviation Honor Roll, Priester was named Man of the Year in Transportation by the City of Chicago in 1973, who called his work "essential to the life of Chicago." He was also the 1988 recipient of the National Air Transportation Association's William T. Ong Award.

Aviation continues to thrive among his family, as grandson, Andrew Priester is Priester Aviation's recently appointed president and COO, grandson, George Priester is a pilot for United Airlines, and granddaughter, Kathleen Hughes is the author of the aviation-themed novel, "Dear Mrs. Lindbergh" (WW Norton 2003).

He was the beloved husband of the late Veta (nee Bedwell); loving father of Charles (Erika), Sheila (the late James) Hughes and Sharon (Adam) Lewert; devoted grandfather of Kristine (Tom) Schnell, Paula (Scott) Lois, George John II (Jennifer), Andrew (Christine) and Antoinette Priester, Meghan (Kimball Mayer) Hughes, James (Holly Stewart) Hughes, Kathleen (Tim Groves) Hughes and John, Sarah, and Christopher Lewert, and great-grandfather of 18.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Rev. John P. Smyth, Standing Tall Charitable Foundation, 1100 N. River Road, Des Plaines, IL 60016 or the George J. Priester Aviation Scholarship Fund, Southgate

Palwaukee visionary, corporate air travel pioneer dies at 98

BY AVIAN CARRASQUILLO

Daily Herald Staff Writer

8-18-06

George Priester Sr., 98, a pioneer in the field of aviation, died in his sleep Thursday.

Priester, of Inverness, owned and operated Palwaukee Airport in Wheeling from 1953 to 1986, before it was sold to the village of Wheeling and the city of Prospect Heights.

Palwaukee Airport board Chairman Kevin Dohm said the Priester name is as important to aviation as that of the Wright Brothers.

"George Priester had a vision for the general aviation industry and worked hard to make it what it is today," Dohm said.

"He was using jets out of Palwaukee for corporate travel when most people hadn't even thought of it," he said.

"Everyone in the industry including pilots like myself owe him a debt of gratitude."

Palwaukee spokesman Robert Mark recalled Priester as a man who wouldn't let anything get in his way.

"I recall one time George was piloting a single-engine airplane on his way to a business meeting. It crashed just after takeoff on the west side of the airport onto Wolf Road. Everyone panicked, the fire department came out, but George was fine, not a scratch on him. He just got up, brushed it off and took another plane. He was quite a character,"

George Priester Sr.

Mark said.

He credits Priester for making Palwaukee what it is today.

"George was the one that took this place from a dusty little airport to the major business aviation airport it is today," Mark said.

According to the FAA, under Priester's tenure Palwaukee grew from five employees on 108 acres and four short gravel runways to 200 employees on 300 acres, with five hard surface runways. It went from 63 aircraft to more than 400.

Priester's love affair with aviation began after his first plane ride in 1928. He went on to get his pilot's license.

In 1938 he became an instrument instructor pilot for the War Training Service. He later opened a school for instrument pilot training at Palwaukee. He began flying for hire in the 1940s and did so for news agencies and presidential candidates, before going on to purchase Palwaukee.

The Priester name lives on in Priester Aviation, a service provider of fueling, aircraft storage and maintenance, and a jet charter to the business community. Its corporate headquarters are at Palwaukee.

Priester's son Charles, chairman of Priester Aviation, said his father was a great man.

"He was a great guy and a visionary. He had tremendous influence on a lot of things among them the aviation industry," Charles Priester said.

"He had tremendous confidence in the people who worked with him and his family. He had the foresight in letting us do the things we wanted to do. I hope I'm that way with my children."

Visitation for Priester will be from 3 to 8 p.m. Sunday and 9 to 10 a.m. Monday at Oehler Funeral Home, 2099 Miner St., Des Plaines. A funeral Mass is scheduled for 10 a.m. Monday at St. Raymond de Penafort, 301 S. I-Oka, Mount Prospect.
