Wheeling Old Resident Dies Suddenly After Making Xmas Plans

Mrs. Christian Wendling, nee Louisa Brecheisen, was born Jan. 12, 1847, in Alsace-Lorraine, and died at her home in Wheeling, Dec. 19, 1927, at the ripe age of 80 years, 11 months, 24 days.

Deceased came to this country with her parents, when six years of age, and settled in Chicago, where she grew to young womanhood. She had, in fact, spent practically all of her life in this community.

Oct. 14, 1869, she married her now sorrowing husband. Seven children blessed this union. Three preceded her in death, the four left to mourn are: Elsie, at home; Benjamin in Chicago; Geo. at Lomira, Wis.; William in Des Plaines, besides the aged husband, and one sister of Pasadena, California, also five grandchildren, a host of relatives and friends.

Eight years ago she and her husband celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Wendling was never very robust in health, although she enjoyed fairly good health. She was ill only a few hours before her demise.

She had stayed up Sunday eve, till nearly 10 o'clock, preparing her Christmas cards and talking over Xmas plans, but shortly after retiring, she took suddenly ill and died before medical aid could be summoned.

She was converted and joined the Evangelical church at an early age, having been a loyal and faithful member. She was an active member of the Northfield Evangelical church 46 years, always regular in attendance to both church and Sunday school; also a member of the W. M. Society.

Her pleasant smile and words will be greatly missed by her friends in our community.

May God's richest blessings rest on those that mourn. The funeral was held at the church Wednesday, afternoon, by Rev. M. G. Geil, assisted by Rev. E. Leslie Shaw of the Presbyterian church of Wheeling. Interment in Wheeling cemetery.

The flowers were many and beautiful.

Mr. C. Wendling and family greatly appreciate the help and sympathy in their bereavement, given by the Rev. M. G. Geil of North Northfield, Rev. Shaw of Wheeling, the choir of the Evangelical church, Mr. Frank Forke, and the many other friends.

Erich Wenzlaff is an outstanding example of one who started simply, but has achieved the position of a prominent and successful businessman. Wenzlaff's Restaurant has earned the well-known reputation of being one of the best in a community famous for the serving of good food.

Erich was born in Schulitz, Province of West Prussia, Germany. He lived there until the age of 17 when he was attending a teacher's college. In June of 1920 he came to America and then to Wheeling, to work for his uncle, Charles Wenzlaff, who was then proprietor of the old Union hotel. Erich remained at the Union until December of 1925 when a fire completely destroyed the building. The hotel had changed hands only six months before the fire occurred.

A business of his own was the next step in Erich's life. He operated his first restaurant in the building which is now owned by the Ludwig Schroeders on Milwaukee ave.

Soon after the opening of his own business Erich married his wife, Frieda. They now have two children, Erich, 16, and Margaret, 13.

In 1930 the present restaurant was constructed and Erich and his wife have spent the 20 years since working to make it the success it is today.

Erich also takes an interest in community life and is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Lion's club. He is also in the Germania Club in Chicago and is a member of the Elks.

Wheeling mother shoots self for unknown cause

Mrs. Delia Werhane, 55, who resided on Sanders road near Dundee road, was found dead by her husband, Herman Werhane, 81, on the second floor of his barn early Monday morning.

She was lying face down and when turned over a 32 calibre gun was found beneath her. She had shot herself through the temple.

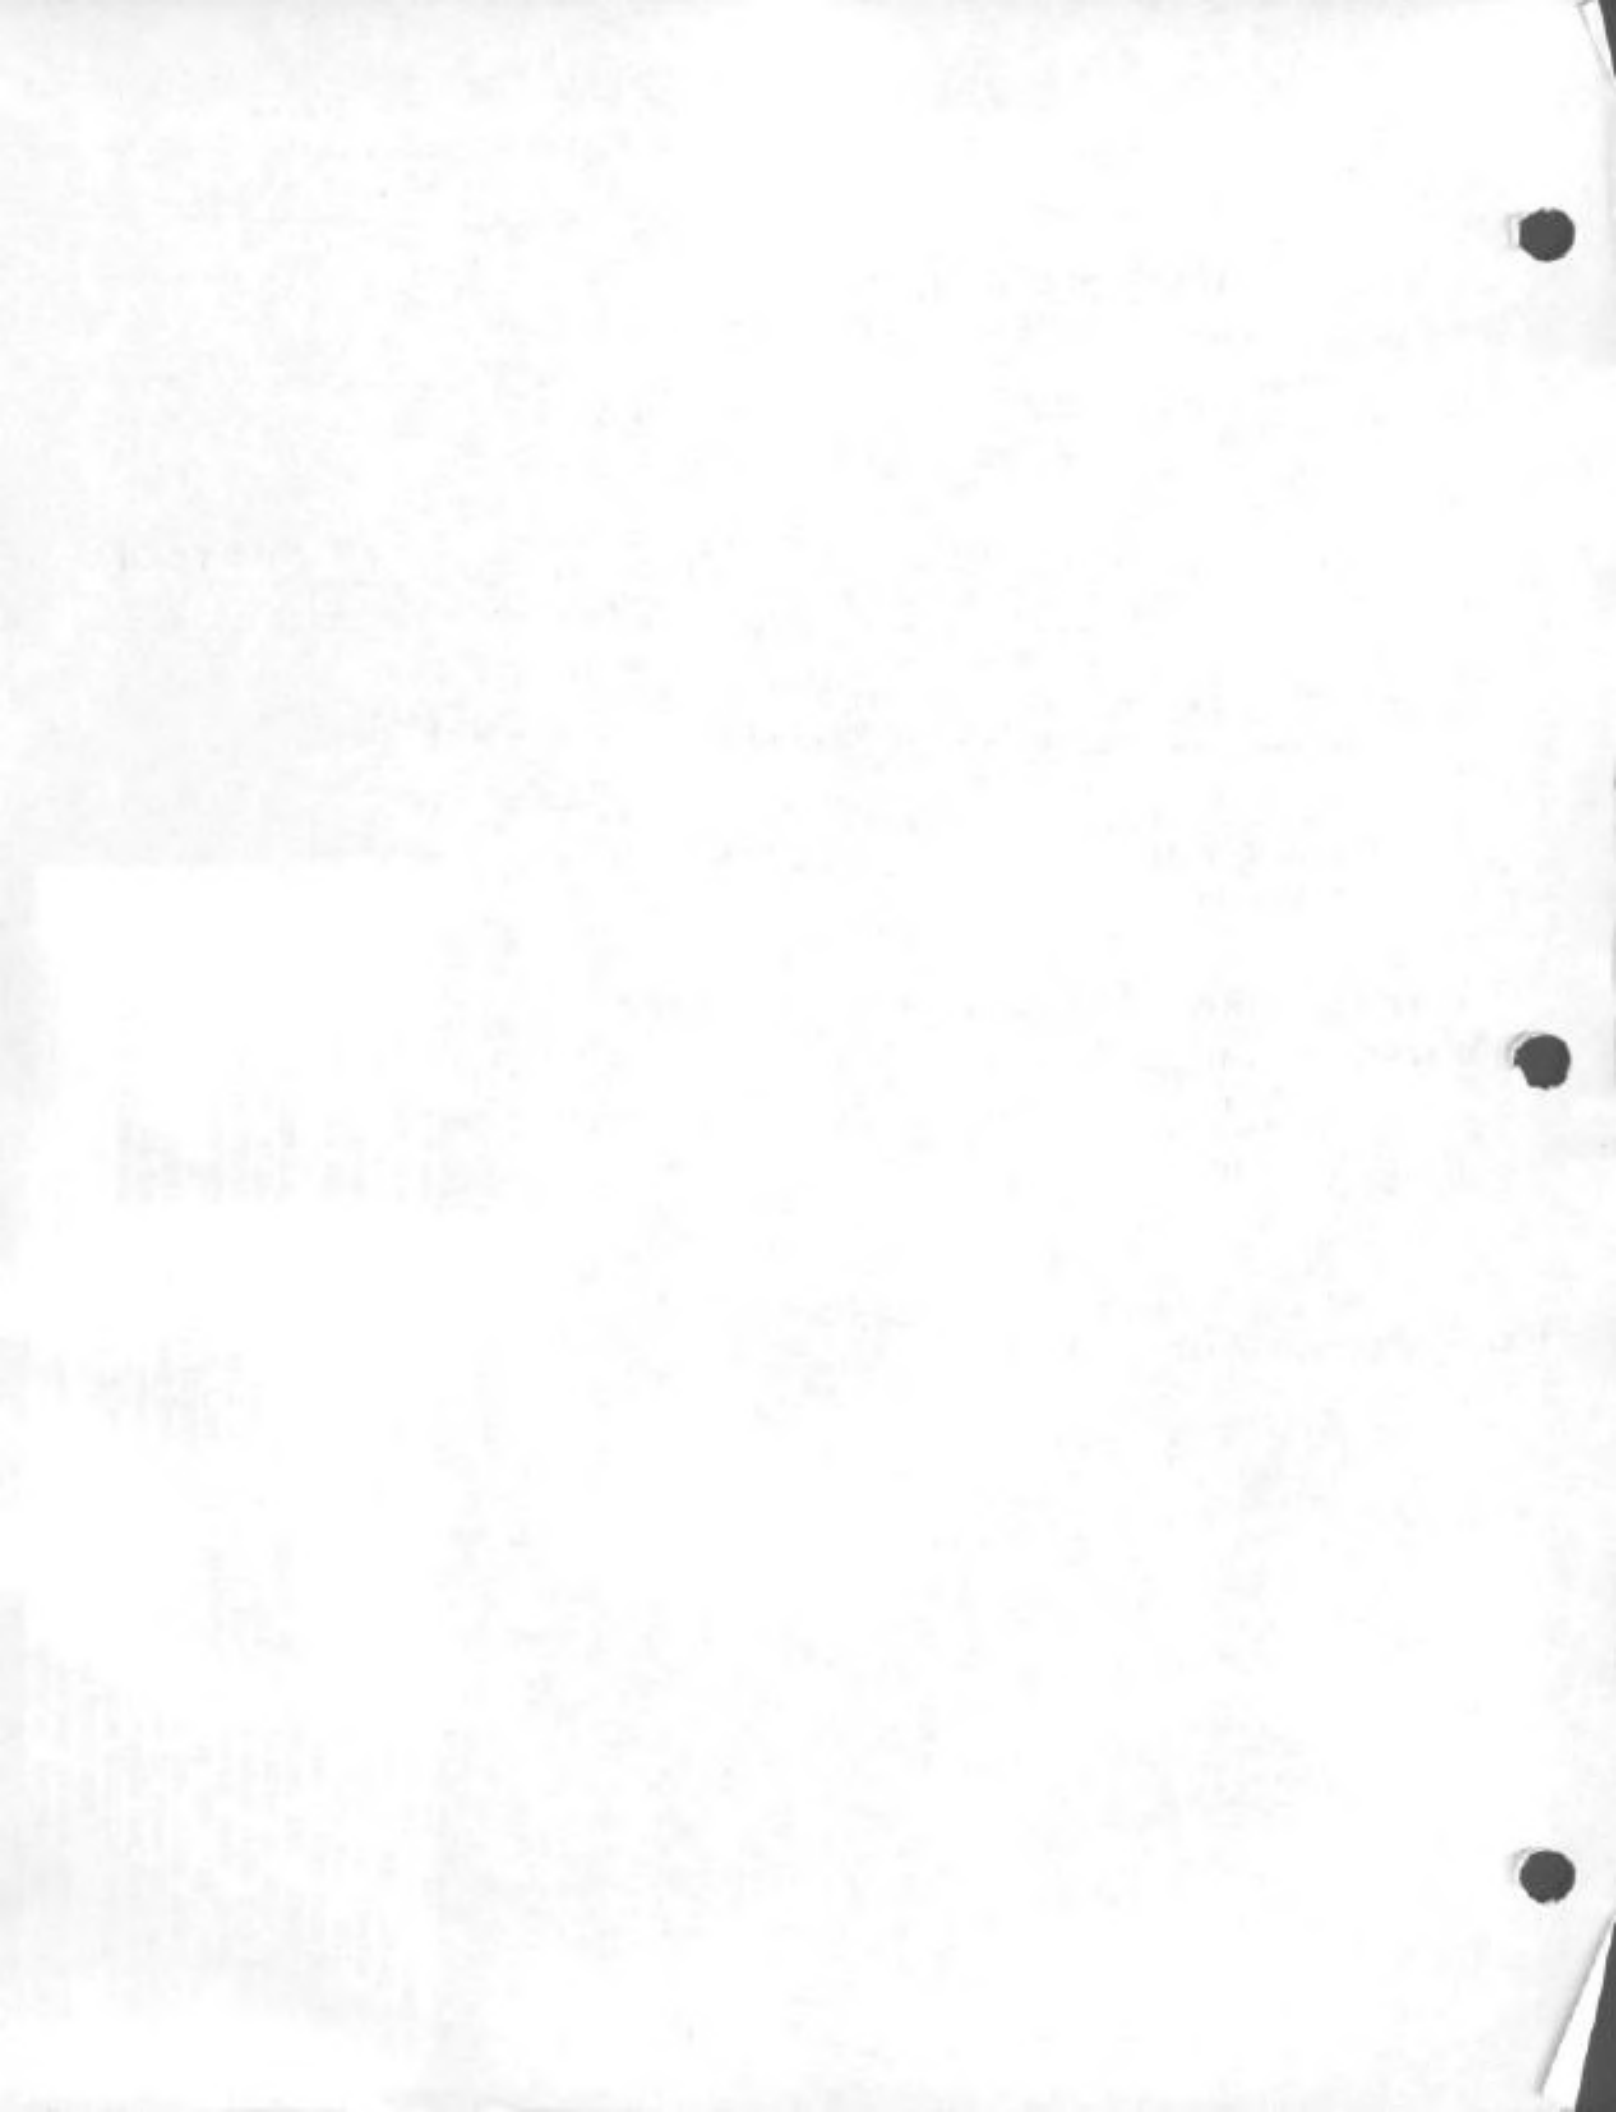

Her husband testified at the inquest Tuesday, held at the Lzauer funeral home, Northbrook, that his wife was in apparently good spirits when she left the house. She asked her husband to put the cow to pasture while she cut some rhubarb.

Returning to the house, Mr. Werhane went in search of his wife, finally finding her body. The gun used was rusty and had laid in a bureau drawer of the house for eight years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in Oakwood cemetery.

Delia Mentzer was born in North Northfield August 1, 1893 and married Herman Werhane Jan. 6, 1930. They have two children, Sally Ann, 13, and Donald, 16.

Also surviving, in addition to the husband, are: a sister, Mrs. Clara Mick, Forest Park; four brothers, Chas. of Ft. Atkinson, Christ, Deerfield, Louis, Rogers Park and Emil, Highland Park.

MRS. J. WESSLING

Mrs. Leanna A. Wessling, daughter of Daniel and Mary Stanger, was born on the Stanger farm south of Wheeling, Aug. 1, 1850. She attended the Wheeling District school and later went to N. W. College, the first year it was located at Naperville in 1871.

In 1872 she was married to Mr. John C. Wessling of North Northfield, where both were faithful workers in the local church and the social life of the community. One daughter, Ada, was born to them. In the early nineties they moved to Naperville where they lived for several years, then came back to their late home on Dundee road east of Wheeling. Here in 1922 they celebrated their golden wedding with the help of many friends and relatives.

The following year the family circle was broken when Mr. Wessling passed away very suddenly. The next year Mrs. Wessling spent with her daughter's family in So. Dakota. About 1925 she returned with the Buberts to the old home in Wheeling where the next 10 years were spent. In 1935 the Buberts moved to Naperville so that the children could attend college there, and again Mrs. Wessling accompanied them.

Throughout her life Mrs. Wessling possessed a vivacious and radiant personality, which made the passing of the years rest lightly upon her.

She took an active interest in current events, was a worker in the Evangelical church and Mission society wherever she lived. She enjoyed her usual good health until a few months ago, when, on account of a heart ailment, she began to fail. Early in January bronchial pneumonia developed which ended her life on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 20. On Sunday afternoon the funeral services were held in Grace Ev. church, Naperville, where she had been an active worker, and the body was taken to Wheeling, where, amid a profusion of flowers and many, many friends, she was laid to rest beside her husband.

She leaves behind, her daughter, Ada Bubert and husband; two grandchildren, Miriam and Rollin; a sister, Mrs. Entorf of Great Falls, Mont.; two brothers, Geor. Stanger of Deerfield and S. S. Stanger of Ravinia, besides many other relatives and friends.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

OBITUARY

Guy Harris Wilson

Guy Harris Wilson was born May 27, 1891 at West Bridgewater, Mass., and passed away at the Speedway hospital at 11:15 p. m. Monday, April 4, 1932.

He came to this part of the country in 1912 and made it his home the remainder of his life. At the age of 18 years, he enlisted in the Navy and served for a period of 4 years and reenlisted for another three years during which time he served with the Naval Reserve Overseas. At this time he suffered exposures which seriously impaired his health and which in the course of time cost him his life. On his return to civilian life, he was a member of the Cook county police for three years, and served the village of Wheeling as Chief of Police for the past 7 years. He was a member of the American Legion, the Masonic Order and Order of Eastern Star. He was married to Miss Olga Svahn of Chicago, on April 12, 1927, who proved herself a worthy helpmate, as she so bravely stood by him in his losing battle against the ravages of disease.

There remain to mourn his passing, his parents, his wife, a brother, Roy Wilson, and his sister, Ruth Wilson Thomas, besides scores of friends among his associates and acquaintances in his various fields of service.

The body lay in state in the village hall from Thursday afternoon until the hour of the funeral on Friday, April 8. Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church and interment took place in the Masonic section at Ridgewood cemetery. About 40 comrades of the motor police formed a guard of honor for the procession. The rites at the grave were read by his fellow Masons and a salute of farewell was fired over the grave and the note of taps sounded by a guard from the Naval station. The large display of floral tributes and the many in attendance at the service, testified to the place Guy held in the hearts of his countrymen.

We little knew that morning,
God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.

For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide,

And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same.

But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.
By the family of*

I am home in heaven, dear ones:
Oh, so happy and so bright;
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in heaven at last.
There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth-
You shall rest in God's own land.
When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

You can only have one mother,
patient, kind and true;
No other friend in all the world,
will be the same to you.
When other friends forsake you,
to mother you will return.
For all her loving kindness,
she asks nothing in return.
As we look upon her picture,
sweet memories we recall-
Of a face so full of sunshine,
and a smile for one and all.
Sweet Jesus, take this message,
to our dear mother up above,
Tell her how much we miss her-
And give her all our love.
Sacred Heart of Jesus,
I place my trust in thee.

God's Call

We little knew that morning
God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

STUDENT - WHEELING HIGH SCHOOL

Two Wheeling teens die in car wreck

Two Wheeling High School students died in an automobile accident Sunday while returning to their homes from a trip to Antioch.

The 16-year-old driver of the car, Mark A. Wyscup of 1204 Sarasota in Wheeling, was dead on arrival at St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan, according to Lake County Sheriff's Police reports. Sherri L. Thomas, a passenger in the car, died several hours after the accident, which occurred at 5:50 p.m. Miss Thomas, who lived at 397 Thelma Court in Wheeling, was 15 years old.

The fatal accident took place on Route 45 about a mile south of Route 173 near Zion. Wyscup's car collided with the fender of another car which he was apparently attempting to pass. The car went out of control, left the east side of the road, struck a tree and flipped over.

Driver of the other automobile involved was Steven M. Reib, 19, also of Wheeling. Reib and the three passengers in his car were uninjured.

Dr. Thomas Shirley, Wheeling High School principal, delivered a brief eulogy on the school's public address system Tuesday morning, after which students observed a moment of silence in memory of the two accident victims.

Funeral services were to be held for Mark Wyscup at 9:30 a.m. and for Sherri Thomas at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Kolssak's Funeral Home in Wheeling.
