Village of Wheeling

Law Enforcement Training Week

April 11-16, 2011

WHEREAS, the importance of professional law enforcement training is necessary to train the law enforcement officers that protect the residents of the Village of Wheeling; and to insure and protect the rights of the citizens of the Village of Wheeling in a professional manner according to the guarantees of these rights and freedoms afforded through the United States Constitution and the Constitution of the State of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, the International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association (ILEETA) works with the law enforcement trainers throughout the world and the United States, and the citizens of the respective communities, including the Village of Wheeling, receive the many benefits of professional law enforcement training; and

WHEREAS, the International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers membership trains many thousands of law enforcement officers annually, and;

WHEREAS, members of the International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers are dedicated to using their cognitive knowledge and physical skills, which are needed to improve the delivery of professional law enforcement training to all law enforcement officers; and

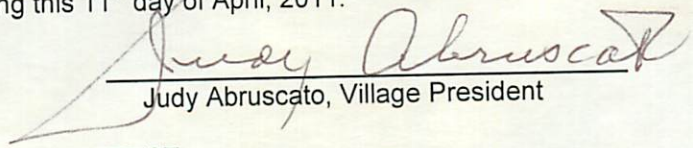

WHEREAS, International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association understands that their professional commitment to impart "Wisdom and Courage Through Knowledge and Skill" to the law enforcement community will guarantee safer and well protected communities, and insure the rights of the citizens to live free from fear; and,

WHEREAS, International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association provides unique opportunities for professional law enforcement trainers to develop new and improved skills through hands on learning experiences, including educational workshops, project work, presentation experiences, courses, conferences; and

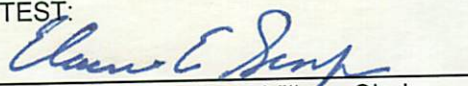

WHEREAS, the training that International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers members receive through its annual conference, which is held annually in the Village of Wheeling, is a valuable asset to freedom and the democratic way of life; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the Village of Wheeling hereby proclaims April 11-16, 2011, as "Law Enforcement Training Week" in the Village of Wheeling and urges all professional law enforcement trainers to continually develop new skills, attain new information and hone their professional law enforcement trainer skills to best serve their respective communities.

DATED at the Village of Wheeling this 11th day of April, 2011.
